Former Nyssa Girl Married In LDS Salt Lake City Temple Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Owen Platt

A reception was held in the New Plymouth LDS church for Mr. and Mrs. Jay Owen Platt, who were married Feb. 9 in the Salt Lake City LDS Temple. The bride is the former Jerilyn Cleverly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Cleverly of Fruitland and former Nyssa residents.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. J. Clair Platt of Rt. 2, New Plymouth.

For her wedding and reception, the bride chose a traditional white satin gown with featured a lace over satin bodice with long pointed sleeves. Seed pearls were trim for the tiny collars and down the center of the bodice. The skirt was full net and lace insets over satin.

Her veil was held in place by a pleated crown of net and she carried an orchid centered in her bride's bouquet.

Miss Bonnie Platt was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length rose gown. Miss Ellen Woolley and Miss Deane Cleverly were bridesmaids. They wore gowns made identical to that of the maid of honor in pale shades of pink and green.

Del Ray Platt was best man. For her daughter's reception, Mrs. Cleverly chose a dress of ice blue. Mrs. Platt wore a beige afternoon dress.

Centering the refreshment table was a large wedding cake made in an exact replica of the Salt Lake Temple, which was baked and decorated by the bride's mother. Serving the cake and punch were Mrs. Glenn Smith, Mrs. Ella Stokes, Mrs. Noel Condie, Mrs. Emil McEwen and Mrs. Cleverly.

The bride is a senior at Fruitland high school and will graduate this spring. The bridegroom is stationed with the United States Army at Fort Lewis, Wash. The new Mr. and Mrs. Platt honeymooned in the Southern Utah parks, and Las Vegas, Nev.
