Adrian Presbyterian Church Notes

Due to the fact there was no school Monday of this week clubs did not meet after school. Next Monday after school, April 18, the clubs will meet and have an Easter egg hunt. All children who can be asked to bring some cooked colored eggs.

Mary and Martha Missionary society will meet Thursday with Mrs. Herbert Thomas, Mrs. Dyre Roberts assisting hostess; Mrs. E. E. Eastman, devotionals, Mrs. M. L. Kurtz, prayer cycle and Mrs. Athol Sayre, program.

The regular monthly church board meeting will meet at the M. L. Judd home this evening, (Thursday).

The 20-40 club voted to buy 24 small folding chairs and to build three tables for the smaller children. They plan to have these ready to use by June, in time for the daily vacation Bible school.

Our church joined with churches all over the world on Easter Sunday in an offering for "One Great Hour of Sharing." If you wish to mail an offering this next week send it to K. I. Peterson, treasurer, Adrian Ore., or drop it in the offering plate in the special envelope provided next Sunday. It is for you to decide what you can share with those less fortunate.

The Fidelae Amicae society has set the date of May 4 to have its parcel post sale. A short program will be presented and the girls will sell ice cream, cake, pie and coffee.

Eagles Elect New Officers For Year

The annual election of the Nyssa Aerie of the Eagles lodge was held here Wednesday, Apr. 6. The new officers for the lodge are Dale Garrison, president; Ward Lundy, vice president; Lee Miller, chaplain; Lloyd Mackrill, conductor; Bob Thompson, secretary; Sam Phillips, treasurer; Gene Raymond, inside guard; Wilbur Holcomb, outside guard; E. Multnomah Bible School Choir To Sing At Owyhee Church

The blue-robed, 40 voice, a cappella choir of the Multnomah School of the Bible of Portland, Ore., will present a sacred musical concert at the Owyhee Community church at the regular 11 o'clock church service Sunday morning.

The choir is directed by Lauren B. Sykes who is presently the organist for the Portland Symphony orchestra. In addition to his choir directing Mr. Sykes teaches other classes in the school relating to music. Music critics of the Pacific Northwest have highly praised both the organ and choral performances of Mr. Sykes.

Assisting the director with the 1955 choir activities are Ronald Till, president of Port Orchard, Wash.; Esther Cowles, secretary-treasurer of Waterford, Calif.; Roger McCracken, business manager, of Riverside, Calif., and Betty Vrieling, librarian, of Bellingham, Wash.

Rev. Kurtz Tells Of Ethiopian Life

Newell Heights—Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kurtz received a letter from their son and daughter-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Harold Kurtz, missionaries for the United Presbyterian church in Ethiopia.

It is summertime there, the season of "little rain" and there are many beautiful flowers. Mrs. Kurtz had picked enough blackberries for a pie.

Their guests for the past week had been the Rev. and Mrs. Don McClure, missionaries returning to Ethiopia following a year's furlough to the United States. The McClures will be remembered in the Adrian area as Rev. McClure had been a speaker to the Adrian high school and the United Presbyterian church several years ago. Their hometown is Blairsville, Penn.

Purchase Chairs for Presbyterian Church

Adrian—The 20-40 club of the Adrian United Presbyterian church met Thursday night in the church basement with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Toppliff as hosts.

Following a potluck dinner, a business meeting was conducted and charades were played. The club had obtained enough money from the church, "Fun Night" to purchase 24 children's chairs. Plans were made to have the men make three tables to be ready June 1 for vacation Bible school.

Full Gospel To Have Re-Opening

The re-opening of the Nyssa Full Gospel church, Jesus Name Full Gospel services under the direction of the Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd N. Pounds was announced this week, by Rev. Pounds.

The Williams building on the highway, recently vacated by Taylor's Food Market has been secured for the meetings.

Services will be held on Sunday morning and evening and Wednesday evening prayer and Bible study will be held.

Sunday, April 17, will be a highpoint in the schedule. The Rev. and Mrs. Clare L. Smith of Boise with their five talented children will have charge of the meeting. The children range in ages from 4 to 16 years. Rev. Pounds states that all sing and play beautifully and that one rarely has the opportunity of seeing such talent in children of one family. The public is invited to attend this meeting.

FIRST WARD TO SPONSOR DANCE FOR BUILDING FUND

The LDS First ward MIA is sponsoring a dance April 22, Friday evening, for the general public at the Nyssa stake house. Funds from the dance will be donated to the building fund.

Refreshments will be served and a feature of the evening will be a floor show at intermission.

Owyhee Community Church News

Some 60 people gave a housewarming for the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Himple on Tuesday evening. After viewing the house the group gathered in the church basement where coffee, punch and cookies were served. The group presented a white chenille bed spread to the Rev. and Mrs. Himple.

Prayer meeting and Bible study was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Perkins on Wednesday evening.

Some 135 people were present at the Easter church service at the church. Special numbers for the morning service included: A sextet number, "The Tomb in the Garden" was sung by May and Molly Yoneyama, Garnet Ritchie, Gladys Stephens, Mrs. Elver Nielsen, and Mrs. Bill Richeson. A quartet number, "Alive Again" by Annabel Arai, Garnet Ritchie, Larry Culbertson and Rev. Himple. Just before the message, Rev. Himple and Garnet Ritchie sang a duet number entitled, "Gone is the Darkness."

As advisor to the Hi-Y-Tri-Y Christian club at the Adrian high school, Rev. Himple spoke to the high school group at a special assembly on Thursday afternoon. The club is in connection with the Y.M.C.A. in Boise.

On Saturday evening the young people of the church are urged to be at the church to help arrange and fix things for the special choir coming to the church on Sunday.
