with a new Electric Range...

Dinner's all ready; the family will be eating at 6 . . . yet this housewife just stepped in the door. That's the smart way — the modern way — with an up-to-date electric range in the kitchen.

On club day or marketing day, the smart, modern wife puts dinner in the oven during morning leisure time. At the proper moment, the timer turns the oven on, cooks the food, then turns the oven off. Everything's done to perfection, too!

Plan to shop for your new 1955 electric range tomorrow! You can operate your new range for about a penny a meal per person. That's because Idaho Power rates are 35% below the national average!
