

OwyheeMrs. Kenneth McDonald
Dial 3209

The meeting of the O.K.K. has been postponed from May 19 to May 26 at the home of Mrs. Ronald Batt.

Russell Bassett and Junior Atagi were among Boy Scouts who spent the weekend camping beyond Jordan Valley. The group left Friday after school and returned Sunday with their leader Hank Moore and Mervin Peterson and Ernest Seuell who took a truck to haul their gear. The group was met at their camp by Pud Long who acted as their guide through the Craters.

Mrs. Ed Bassett and Mrs. Claude Skinner and Mrs. Ira Price helped with a dinner Monday night at the Adrian Presbyterian church for the senior class of the Adrian high school.

The 4-H club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Donald Aari with five members and their leader, Donald Brewer present. After the business meeting the group enjoyed a weiner roast and cake and punch served by Mrs. Aari. The next meeting will be May 28 at the home of Dennis Hooper.

Mrs. Charley Culbertson and Garnet Ritchey attended a 4-H leaders meeting in Ontario last Wednesday.

Mrs. Mark Hartley assisted Mrs. Vern Garner and Mrs. Montgomery with a pink and blue shower for Mrs. Kenneth Smith Thursday at the Vern Garner home. Refreshments were served to 20 guests.

Mrs. Donald Hatt attended a pink and blue shower Wednesday afternoon at the Art Sparks home given for Mrs. Henry Reuter. Mr. and Mrs. Reuter are parents of twin boys, Pat and Mike born Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Ed Bassett, Mrs. Ernie Seuell and Rev. Henry Moore attended a Bible school teachers training class in Nampa Saturday.

Mrs. Wayne Pulsipher and son of Idaho Falls arrived Friday evening to spend a few days visiting her father V. B. Carlson.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Shippy and sons were Tuesday evening supper guests in the Ellis Walters home.

Mrs. Bill McEwen, Ethel and Evelyn of Ontario visited Sunday afternoon in the Orville McEwen home.

Mrs. Morris Huffman left Wednesday morning to take her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mildred Huffman and daughters Melanie and Rowena to their home in Klamath Falls after they had spent the past month visiting here.

Craig Holcomb of Nyssa spent the week-end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morfitt at Owyhee dam. Monday afternoon his mother, Mrs. Delwin Holcomb and grandmother, Mrs. Wilbur Holcomb of Nyssa returned him home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Westfall and Johnny of Hines were guests at the T. H. Brewer home Sunday. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Keith Tallman and family of Homedale, Mrs. Howard Evans and Anne of Parma and Mrs. Evans of Twin Falls visited the Brewer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Kygar spent Monday and Tuesday here from their ranch on Crooked Creek.

Kay McDonald went to Owyhee dam Sunday with Mrs. Helen Hutchinson and Louise and Harley Winter.

Mrs. Bob Allred entertained Thursday evening with a birthday party for her husband.

Jake Sumpter of Elk City, Ida., and Ray Sumpter and Jerry of Payette called at the E. L. Sumpter home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Westfall and Johnny of Hines spent the weekend with Mrs. Darrell Williams while Mr. Williams went to Amity to see his mother, Mary Williams who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gressley were Sunday dinner guests in the home of their son Keith Gressley near Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kraai of Nyssa and grandsons of Bruneau had Sunday dinner and spent the evening in the Ed Bassett home.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Peutz and Wanda had Sunday dinner and spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McDonald and children.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Crocker were guests in Vale Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Boles.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brewer went to Wilder Monday evening where they had supper with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eads and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Share and children spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reid and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Woodruff and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sikes of Nampa were Sunday evening guests at the Bill Cook home.

Mrs. Cleone Maw took Mrs. Dorothy Gunter and Margo to Vale Friday where Margo was in the 4-H Health contest. Mrs. Maw visited with Mrs. Glen Short.

Mrs. Della Ditty and Mrs. Chet Newell and daughter of Tacoma spent from Wednesday until Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. T. H.

Jordan Valley

Mrs. John Mallea

Raymond Cecil Hayes, 57, of Marsing, a lifetime resident of Owyhee county died Tuesday in a Nampa hospital.

Mr. Hayes was born April 26, 1897 at Delamar, Ida. His grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Baxter moved from Iowa to Jordan Valley many years ago when the town was known as Baxterville. They were among the first white residents there. Cecil Hayes was a stock rancher near Jordan for many years before moving to Marsing in March 1953.

Survivors are a brother, Geo. Hayes of Jordan Valley, three sisters, Mrs. Leona Birmingham of Marsing, Mrs. Ruth Townsend of Homedale and Mrs. Ethel Bifford of Hawthorne, Nev. and several nieces and nephews.

Services were conducted at Peckham-Daken chapel in Caldwell Friday with the Rev. C. Warren Van Camp officiating.

Interment was at Jordan Valley.

Mrs. Aileen Staples has gone to Boise to take care of her daughter, Mrs. James Uranga for a few days. The Aranga's are the parents of a son, Joseph Michael, born May 4, at a Boise hospital.

The Jordan Valley high school seniors returned to their homes Tuesday evening after a four-day sneak. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Lequerica and Gene Stanford. It is unknown where they went.

The Jordan Valley eighth graders will graduate May 17, at the grade school. Those graduating are: Richard Morris, Daniel Staples, Richard Haylett, Mike Hanley, Jack Swisher, Dan Purcell and Melvin Carson. Dan Purcell will give the invocation, Dan Staples, welcoming address, Dan Purcell the history, Melvin Carson, class will, Mike Hanley, class prophecy, Richard Morris, the valedictorian speech. The following children will sing "Memories" and "Open Up Your Heart", Carmenleta Elordi, Sandra Grow, Cheryl Elordi, Barbara Potter, Richard Morris, Richard Mallea, Dan Staples, Paul Arritola, Linda Shannon, Faye Fluss and Janice Grubaugh. Felix Jaca, chairman of the school board will present the diplomas.

The following Jordan Valley high school seniors will receive their diplomas the evening of May 21: Barbara Feltwell, Jeff Stanford, Eddie Lynde, Ruth Cline, Phyllis Dorance, Edward Montgomery, Carl Dowell, Frank Stanford and Jerry Stanford. Barbara Feltwell is valedictorian and Jeff Stanford is salutatorian. Following the exercises a dance will be held at the gym with the Ranch Boys furnishing the music.

Miss Loretta Fretwell was honored with a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Brewer. Friday Mrs. Brewer took the visitors to Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hatt and children had Sunday dinner in Adrian with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatch.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mallea and family visited at the Ralph Gluch home in Murphy Sunday. They also called at the A. E. Jones home in Nampa and the Harold Gluch home near Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Larrinaga were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gluch and family.

The annual grade school picnic is scheduled to be held Wednesday, May 18, at the Givens Hot Springs near Marsing. The community is welcome to attend.

Michael Hanley and Luis Yturraspe were absent from school three days the past week as they went to the Junipers to help Joe Swisher move his cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hanley and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dental and baby left Saturday for Corvallis to attend the annual Stockmens

Emery Skinner and son Friday evening. Present were, Mary Ellen Shoun, Mrs. Caroline Swayze, Mrs. Robert Meuschke and daughter. The evening was spent playing cards and visiting.

Visiting in Jordan with relative and friends Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jayo and family of Nyssa, Mrs. Joe Egurola and daughters of Homedale, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Babiola and daughter of Caldwell, and a niece, Laura Arriaga of Marsing and Joe Churcortegui.

Lazro Mediet of Winnemucca, Nev., transacted business and visited relatives here last week.

Loretta Fretwell and Becky Shoun spent the week end in Boise at the home of Loretta's mother, Mrs. Olive Fretwell.

Mrs. Maxine Yturraspe is employed at the Jordan Valley postoffice during the absence of Mrs. Aileen Staples who is vacationing in Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith and daughter of Arook spent several days last week at the Gusman ranch helping with the spring branding.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gluch were in Murphy Tuesday where Mrs. Gluch attended a school board directors meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mallea and family visited at the Ralph Gluch home in Murphy Sunday. They also called at the A. E. Jones home in Nampa and the Harold Gluch home near Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Larrinaga were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gluch and family.

The annual grade school picnic is scheduled to be held Wednesday, May 18, at the Givens Hot Springs near Marsing. The community is welcome to attend.

Michael Hanley and Luis Yturraspe were absent from school three days the past week as they went to the Junipers to help Joe Swisher move his cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hanley and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dental and baby left Saturday for Corvallis to attend the annual Stockmens convention. During their absence their daughters stayed at the Leonard Duncan home.

Dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Maxine Yturraspe and family one day last week were Mrs. Evelyn McDannel and family and Mrs. Edith Baltzor both of Nampa and Lorraine Pudum of Moscow, Idaho.

Mrs. Robert Meuschke was in Boise Wednesday where she visited her husband who is a polio patient at the Convalescence Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Kingman KolonyJeanette Conant
Dial 2552

Henry and Marvin Besendorfer attended a priesthood party at the Owyhee L.D.S. ward Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ashcraft and children of Unity spent the week-end at the Dale Ashcraft home.

Mrs. Ronald Batt drove to John Day Friday to take her father, Mr. Mills, to consult a doctor there.

Pollyanna club met on May 5 with Mrs. Erma Sparks. There were 14 members present. Next meeting will be June 3 with Mrs. Hazel Shaffer.

Miss Melba Price, who has been vacationing in Canada and on the coast is spending the last few days of her vacation with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Price.

Visitors at the Thompson homes Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Herb Andrews and daughter, Verna.

convention. During their absence their daughters stayed at the Leonard Duncan home.

Dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Maxine Yturraspe and family one day last week were Mrs. Evelyn McDannel and family and Mrs. Edith Baltzor both of Nampa and Lorraine Pudum of Moscow, Idaho.

Mrs. Robert Meuschke was in Boise Wednesday where she visited her husband who is a polio patient at the Convalescence Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch and family of Portland spent one day last week visiting old friends here. Mrs. Welch is the former Alice Connors of this area.

The regular meeting of the WSCS was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Burnham at Danner. Mrs. Charles Crombie was honored with a handkerchief shower. Refreshments were served.

Butler of Boise, Mildred Vaughn and Gladys Kroner both of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Sparks went to Boise on Mother's Day to have dinner with their two sons, Dick and Guy.

Callers at the Earl Kyger home Sunday morning were Mr. and Mrs. John Kyger, Mrs. Irene Dody, Dick Wyatt and Don Smith.

Mrs. C. D. Pittenger, mother of Mrs. Charles Bowers, was a Mother's Day dinner guest at the Bowers home.

Marvin Besendorfer and Billy Conant went roller skating in Ontario with the Adrian sixth grade.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyer of Florida, aunt and uncle of Paul Cleaver, and Mr. and Mrs. John Cleaver of Nyssa were Thursday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cleaver. The Boyers are staying at the John Cleaver home in Nyssa.

Mrs. Paul Cleaver was a guest pinochle player at the Wesley Piercy home Friday.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Jim Phifer and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Kurtz met with the other members of their pinochle club at the Kenny Price home, where the low score winners entertained the high. Games were played during the evening and at midnight a supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Toomb attended the annual D. H. I. A. meeting and tour last Thursday. The Vale Chamber of Commerce served lunch at noon to the crowd. Jim Phifer from the Kolony was elected a board member for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. French and daughter, Mrs. Gray of Seneca visited Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Price.

The Happy Dozen pinochle club met Friday at the Wesley Piercy home for a 1:00 o'clock luncheon. The six low score winners entertained the six high score winners.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Sparks called on Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Price Monday evening.

Mrs. John Theil visited Mrs. Henry Reuter and twin boys at the hospital Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Sparks went to Boise on Mother's Day to have dinner with their two sons, Dick and Guy.

Callers at the Earl Kyger home Sunday morning were Mr. and Mrs. John Kyger, Mrs. Irene Dody, Dick Wyatt and Don Smith.

Mrs. C. D. Pittenger, mother of Mrs. Charles Bowers, was a Mother's Day dinner guest at the Bowers home.

Marvin Besendorfer and Billy Conant went roller skating in Ontario with the Adrian sixth grade.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyer of Florida, aunt and uncle of Paul Cleaver, and Mr. and Mrs. John Cleaver of Nyssa were Thursday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cleaver. The Boyers are staying at the John Cleaver home in Nyssa.

Mrs. Paul Cleaver was a guest pinochle player at the Wesley Piercy home Friday.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Jim Phifer and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Kurtz met with the other members of their pinochle club at the Kenny Price home, where the low score winners entertained the high. Games were played during the evening and at midnight a supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Toomb attended the annual D. H. I. A. meeting and tour last Thursday. The Vale Chamber of Commerce served lunch at noon to the crowd. Jim Phifer from the Kolony was elected a board member for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. French and daughter, Mrs. Gray of Seneca visited Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Price.

The Happy Dozen pinochle club met Friday at the Wesley Piercy home for a 1:00 o'clock luncheon. The six low score winners entertained the six high score winners.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Sparks called on Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Price Monday evening.

Mrs. John Theil visited Mrs. Henry Reuter and twin boys at the hospital Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Sparks went to Boise on Mother's Day to have dinner with their two sons, Dick and Guy.

Callers at the Earl Kyger home Sunday morning were Mr. and Mrs. John Kyger, Mrs. Irene Dody, Dick Wyatt and Don Smith.

Mrs. C. D. Pittenger, mother of Mrs. Charles Bowers, was a Mother's Day dinner guest at the Bowers home.

Marvin Besendorfer and Billy Conant went roller skating in Ontario with the Adrian sixth grade.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyer of Florida, aunt and uncle of Paul Cleaver, and Mr. and Mrs. John Cleaver of Nyssa were Thursday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cleaver. The Boyers are staying at the John Cleaver home in Nyssa.

Mrs. Paul Cleaver was a guest pinochle player at the Wesley Piercy home Friday.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Jim Phifer and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Kurtz met with the other members of their pinochle club at the Kenny Price home, where the low score winners entertained the high. Games were played during the evening and at midnight a supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Toomb attended the annual D. H. I. A. meeting and tour last Thursday. The Vale Chamber of Commerce served lunch at noon to the crowd. Jim Phifer from the Kolony was elected a board member for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. French and daughter, Mrs. Gray of Seneca visited Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Price.

The Happy Dozen pinochle club met Friday at the Wesley Piercy home for a 1:00 o'clock luncheon. The six low score winners entertained the six high score winners.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Sparks called on Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Price Monday evening.

Mrs. John Theil visited Mrs. Henry Reuter and twin boys at the hospital Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Sparks went to Boise on Mother's Day to have dinner with their two sons, Dick and Guy.

Callers at the Earl Kyger home Sunday morning were Mr. and Mrs. John Kyger, Mrs. Irene Dody, Dick Wyatt and Don Smith.

PARENTS OF SON

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stanger are parents of a son born May 12 in Ogden, Utah.

DRASTIC PRICE REDUCTIONS

on INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER

Home Freezers and Refrigerators

The World's Finest
Home Freezers
America's Smartest
Refrigerators
at Lowest Prices
on the Market

OWYHEE TRUCK & IMPLEMENT

401 Main Dial 2226

PUBLIC AUCTION SALE

On the Fred Howell ranch, 3/4 mile north of the Parma-Nyssa junction on Highway 95, or 9 miles South of Fruitland on Highway 95.

Friday, May 20, 1955

STARTING AT 1:00 — TERMS: CASH

LUNCH ON GROUNDS

25 HEAD — OF DAIRY CATTLE — 25

- 1—Holstein Cow, Sally 3 yrs. old, fresh May 12
- 1—Guernsey Cow, 4 yrs. old, fresh May 15
- 1—Brindle Cow, 4 yrs., will freshen by sale day
- 1—Jersey Cow, 3 yrs., will freshen May 27
- 1—Jersey Cow, 3 yrs., will freshen May 25
- 1—Guernsey Heifer, heavy springer
- 6—Holstein Heifers, heavy springers
- 1—Guernsey Heifer, open
- 5—Mixed Heifers.
- 5—Holstein Steers
- 1—Holstein Bull, Bluffview bred
- Out of Grassmick Herd
- 1—Holstein Heifer, 3 mos. old, Bluffview bred
- Out of Grassmick Herd

20—Head Weaner Pigs

All cows have clean bill of health. Public invited to inspect herd before sale.

—MACHINERY—

- 1—Int. Tractor, Farmall M, 1950 Model, new rubber
- 1—International V-7 Trail Mower, 1954 Model
- 1—International 4-Bar Side Delivery Rake, 1954 Model
- 1—McCormick-Deering Mower.
- 1—Hammer Mill
- Good Cultivator Shanks, Shovels, Tools
- 1—David Bradley 4-Bar Side Delivery Rake, on rubber
- 1—Case 7-ft. Trail Type Tractor Mower
- 1—John Deere Combination Corn and Spud Cultivator with
- Beet and Bean Bar
- 1—Centrifugal Shallow Well Pump
- 1—2 Year Old David Bradley Manure Spreader
- Other Articles too Numerous to Mention.

—HOUSEHOLD—

- 1—Utility Air Conditioner for average size home
- 1—Chrome Dinette Set
- 1—Pacific Mercury Radio-Phono-TV Comb., 21" screen
-