

It's a Long Way Home For 3 Nyssa Reservists

Three Air Force veterans from Nyssa travel all the way to Boise, Idaho, to participate regularly in Air Reserve training sessions, Lt. Col. Hylon T. Plumb, commander of the 9432nd Air Reserve Squadron with headquarters in Boise, announced today. They are Lt. Col. Lloyd A. Wilson, Capt. Vern L. Moncur and Lt. Cecil H. Morrison, Jr.

Five other Air Reserve officers from Oregon also take Air Reserve training in Boise, the colonel said, namely Major Charles R. Peterson, Capt. Benjamin V. Blair, Jr., Capt. Floyd R. Christensen and Lt. Fred W. Huling, all from Ontario, and Major John F. Pugh of Brogan.

The colonel explained that these Oregon veterans are participating in either a flight training course or an officers' administrative course in order to retain and further develop skills that have taken years to learn.

Rev. Groves to Preach

The Rev. Meredith R. Groves, assistant pastor of the Methodist First church of Boise, will preach Sunday at the Community Methodist church, as the Rev. Ludlow cannot be here for this service, it was announced late Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Ham Chadderton drove to Moses Lake and Quincy, Wash., over Memorial Day.

Refreshments were served by Edith Pounds to members and Mrs. Leon Roberts and her children, guests.

P. Cheldelin Wins PTA Scholarship

Phyllis Cheldelin, a freshman at Oregon State college, has been awarded a Parent-Teachers association scholarship for study at OSC next year.

The $165 scholarship is one of more than 20 awarded annually by the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers. The purpose is to encourage capable young people to enter elementary teacher training in Oregon. It is open to freshmen, sophomores and juniors. The award is based on scholarship, character, personality, leadership, school citizenship, and sound health.

Dianne Maulding, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Maulding chose a day when her dad was fishing to break her arm. She fell from her bicycle Sunday and as a result is now wearing the latest in cast apparel.

4-H LIVESTOCK CLUB MEMBERS MEET MAY 27

A meeting of the Arcadia 4-H Livestock club was held May 27 at the Carl Seburn home. At the meeting, it was decided to have James Bowers give a report at the next meeting on "How To Feed a Dairy Heifer," and all members are to report in one or two weeks. The meeting will be held June 23 at the James Bowers home.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Seburn at the close of the evening.

Enrollment for Music Clinic Starts Monday

Scheduling for a four-week summer music clinic will begin at 9 a. m. this Monday, June 6, it is announced by Ralph Anderson, high school music instructor, who will conduct the classes.

He anticipates a large group of students who want to either start or continue a musical education.

The classes will be in session for four weeks from Monday through Friday in beginning band, beginning orchestra, junior band and orchestra, fundamentals of music and conducting and baton twirling.

Entry blanks for enrollment in the course can be obtained from Mr. Anderson at the high school. He said that because there is no fund established for this program, there will be a tuition fee of $8, which brings the cost per lesson for the average student to about 10 cents.

Services For George Fisher Thursday At Lienkaemper Chapel

Funeral services will be Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. at Lienkaemper's chapel for George Glenn Fisher, 70, who died at his home in Apple Valley, May 28. The Rev. Wesley Jefferies of the Dearflat Methodist church will conduct the services and interment will be in the Parma Cemetery.

Mr. Fisher was born Jan. 29, 1885 in Minnesota and he and his family had lived in Apple Valley for the past four years.

Survivors include his wife, Ma-linda; four sons, Robert and Wilbur of Minnesota; Ernest of Nyssa and Fred Fisher stationed with the United States Air Force in Japan, and four daughters, Mrs. William Hall, Minnesota; Mrs. Foy Brown, Parma; Mrs. Floyd Calivas, Minnesota and Mrs. Raymond Kimmes of Parma.
