A social event of the early summer season was the wedding of Miss Donna Lee Wilson of Nyssa and John Edward Connors, of Tulsa, Okla., Sunday afternoon, June 12, at the Blessed Sacrament church in Ontario.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. George E. (Bud) Wilson of Nyssa and Lucille, Ida., and Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Connors of Tulsa, Okla.

The Rev. Rembert Ahles, OFM, of St. Hubert's church, Nyssa, read the vows before 250 guests at the 5 o'clock double ring ceremony.

The church was beautiful with baskets of white peonies, salal, white satin bows and seven branch candelabra. The altar candles and the tapers were lighted by Tom Sallee and Terry McGinnis, altar boys.

Mrs. Tom Nishitani sang "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap and "Ave Maria" by Bach-Gounod preceding the ceremony. She was accompanied by Mrs. Louie Attebery. Mrs. Attebery also played the wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in an imported Chantilly lace over white bridal satin gown fashioned with a chapel train. Points of interest were the sweetheart necklace, outlined with seed pearls, long point sleeves and a fitted empire waistline. She wore a jeweled crown and a fingertip illusion veil. Her only jewelry was pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom and for her something old she carried a lace handkerchief which belonged to her grandmother, Mrs. J. D. Hughes.

The bride's bouquet was vanda orchids and stephanotis centered with white orchids and tied with satin streamers and stephanotis.

Miss Lois Lucille Wilson was maid of honor for her sister. She was wearing a ballerina length princess style gown of turquoise blue crystalite. She wore a picture hat of white tulle and lace, elbow length mitts pink slippers and carried a bouquet of carnations and stephanotis.

Also attending the bride was Mrs. Delwin Holcomb, bride's matron and Betty Ann Boenig, Keitha Strasbaugh and Agnes Schaffeld, bridesmaids and Kristin Ann Melton, junior bridesmaid. They wore ballerina length gowns of tulle over turquoise taffeta fashioned identical to the gown worn by the maid of honor. They wore picture hats, elbow length mitts, pink slippers and carried bouquets of carnations.

Christine Wilson, dressed in a turquoise taffeta and tulle gown with a scalloped necklace and hemline and tiny rosebuds in the scallions, was flower girl. She wore a flower hat, mitts and carried the traditional basket of rose petals.

Edward A. Connors was best man for his son. Ushers were Bill Wilson, Harold Wilson, Delwin Holcomb, James Wilson and Mike Wilson and Greg Melton, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wilson wore an afternoon dress of mauve pink crystalite with pink and white accessories and a corsage of white gladiolas and stephanotis. Mrs. Connors wore sage green polished cotton with champagne accessories. Her corsage was a green orchid.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Ontario Women's club house. Decorations were arrangements of pink and white peonies. Foursome tables were centered with white tapers wound with green vine. Over the gift tables was a white trellis arch covered with green salal and

Attend Wedding In Baker

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson and family and Janet Medlock went to Baker to participate in Shirley Hagerty's wedding. They also visited Mr. Wilson's brother, Vernon Wilson.

sisting with the reception were Mrs. George Schweizer, Mrs. William J. Melton, Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Bill Wilson, Mrs. George Sallee and Miss Gertrude Schaffeld.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Hall of Cambridge, Burton B. Burroughs of Homedale, Mrs. Arthur Koshella, Alice and Stephen of Lakefork, Ida., Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hayes, Diane and Scott and Diane Wilson of Boise, Mrs. Jerry Wells of Payette, Mrs. Paul Balch of Meridian, Mrs. Paul Pearson, Sister Mary Justina of Fresno, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hughes of Donnelly, Ida., Mr. and Mrs. James Cruickshank of Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. Lem Wilson, Jr., Ray and Gary of Grangeville, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Melton of Donnelly, Ronald von der Heller of Central Point, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schaffeld of Vale.

The bride was a 1932 graduate of Nyssa high school and a graduate of Stephens college at Columbia, Missouri, where she was a member of Sigma Gamma Gam-from which hung a white wedding bell.

In charge of the church and reception decorations were Mrs. George Schweizer, Mrs. Tom Nishitani and Mrs. Ray Wilson.

Miss Alice Komatsu had charge of the bride's book and Mrs. Marvin Wilson, Mrs. Owen Froerer, Mary Ann Alford and Margaret Bates took care of the gifts.

During the reception, music was provided by Mrs. Nishitani, Irene Jayo and Mrs. Herb Fisher. They were accompanied by Mrs. Attebery.

The refreshment table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with pink bells and rose buds. At either end of the table were white tapers and arrangements of pink and white carnations. Mrs. Robert Morfitt, and Mrs. C. A. Mally served the wedding cake following the initial cut by the bride and groom. Pouring punch were Mrs. Clyde Snider, Mrs. R. H. Young, Sr. of Parma, Mrs. Ray Wilson, Mrs. O. E. Cheldelin and Mrs. Lem Wilson Jr., of Grangeville. Also as-
