Methodist Church News

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help." Psalms 121:1.

All college students are cordially invited to attend a Sunday school class which is being held each Sunday at the parsonage at 9:45 a.m. Mr. Ludlow is the teacher.

The MaPa group put in a lot of hard work two evenings last week with the result that the lawn is seeded and ready for shrubs to be planted.

Our ladies of the church are certainly active. On June 25, they again showed their interest in city affairs by having the largest attendance of any church or club group at a demonstration of freezers and their use at the Ed Case Furniture Co. store. As a result, Mrs. Lloyd Tobler, heading the delegation, was presented with a $25 check by Mr. Case, the money to be used as the church group sees fit. They are very appreciative to Mr. Case for the award.

Tuesday through Saturday, July 5-9, the Woman's Society School of Missions and Christian Service will meet at the College of Idaho, Caldwell. Full time delegates will be Mrs. Lytle, Mrs. Snider and Mrs. Keveren. Call Mrs. Lloyd Tobler for transportation as a car will be going each day.

Fifteen members of the Sr. MYF plan to leave by bus early Saturday morning for the Wallowa Lake Youth Institute which will be held from July 9 to 16. The junior hi MYF members will attend the Christian Adventure camp at Wallowa Lake from July 16 to 21. Registration cards and health blanks may be obtained from Rev. Ludlow. Because of the illness of Rev. Leslie Bailey, Mr. Ludlow will be camp manager for the two groups this year; however, he will be in Nyssa each Sunday for the usual Sunday morning classes and services.

Sunday, July 10—Mr. Ludlow's sermon topic for the 11:00 o'clock service will be "Whence Does My Help Come?"—A Meditation on Psalms 121.

July 11—The official board meets at 8:00 p. m.

July 12—WCS executive meeting at 2:00 p. m. at the Lloyd Tobler home.

July 14—WCS general meeting will be held at the church at 2:00 p. m.

REMEMBER! July 14, Thursday evening! MaPa's will hold an ice cream social on the lawn at the Walt Roth home.
