Margaret Funk became the bride of Vernon A. Toombs Friday evening, July 8 in a 6 o'clock ceremony at the Nyssa LDS stake house. Forty relatives and close friends were present when LDS stake president, Arvel L. Child, performed the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with baskets of white lilies and pink snap dragons and for their vows, the bride and bridegroom stood before an arch of lilies and snapdragons.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Marlowe B. Funk and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Toombs all of Nyssa.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of traditional white bridal satin, fashioned with an open neckline, long pointed waist and pointed sleeves with tiny covered buttons at the wrists. A small cap held her dress-length veil in place and she carried a bouquet of red roses, and white carnations, tied with white satin streamers.

Pattie Jamison, cousin of the bride from Salt Lake City, was maid of honor. She wore a blue gown and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Beverly Ashley of Sunny Vale, Calif., was bridesmaid. She wore a pink and white gown and carried pink and white carnations.

Teri Lyn Jamison was flower girl. She was wearing a gown of white satin and carried pink carnations.

Robert E. Fangen was best man.

Mrs. Funk chose an aqua linen afternoon dress for her daughter's wedding. She wore a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Toombs wore pink and white nylon and a pink rose corsage.

A reception-dance was given following the ceremony in the stake house recreation hall.

In charge of the gifts were Karen Greaves, Roxie Woodard, Mrs. Paul Wynn, Mrs. Colleen Greaves and Mrs. Ann Gooch.

Presiding at the frappe table were Mrs. Dennis Toombs, and Mrs. Keith Aller of Salt Lake City and serving the cake were
