LDS Junior Softball Round Robin Started; District Play Here

The Nyssa stake LDS junior softball team commenced a round robin Monday evening. The round robin is a double elimination with the two final teams entering district play.

Monday evening results were Nyssa 2nd, 16 and Owyhee 15; Nyssa 1st 15 and Parma 5 and Ontario took the win from Vale through default.

Nyssa 1st and Nyssa 2nd, Parma and Ontario will see action Thursday evening (tonight) at the rodeo grounds. The 7:30 game will see Nyssa 2nd and Nyssa 1st battling for a win.

The two top teams will enter district play on August 2nd, 3rd and 4th at the Nyssa rodeo grounds. The division consists of teams from the Weiser, Nampa, Boise, Nyssa and Union stakes. Winners of the district will compete in a divisional play off and divisional winners will enter play at Salt Lake City.

Last year over 1200 teams participated in the Junior church softball league and it is expected that more teams will be competing this year.
