Methodist Church News

"Only by pride cometh contention; but with the well advised is wisdom." Proverbs 13:10.

Sunday afternoon, 21 members of the senior high MYF and 3 adults went to Ontario for a swimming party and supper afterwards at the Ontario park. Later they were invited to attend the MYF meeting at the Ontario Methodist church. They reported a very enjoyable time.

Sunday evening the young adult group entertained with an ice cream freeze at the home of Ned Snider. Marilyn Ludlow led the discussion and devotions held later in the evening.

Thursday, Aug. 4, at 8:00 p.m.
The WSCS general meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hugh Tobler, 503 North 4th. Rev. and Mrs. Reyes and assistants from the labor camp will give a most interesting demonstration. All youth and adults are invited.

Sunday, Aug. 7, the title of Mr. Ludlow's sermon at the 11:00 a.m. service will be "Is Pride a Mortal Sin?"

Sunday, Aug. 7, the children's Sunday school picnic will be held at the park. Dinner will start promptly at 1:00 with a "fun time" and program for the children later. Bring potluck. Cake only for dessert. Ice cream and cold drinks will be furnished.
This is everybody's picnic—adults and children—so you'll come and have fun.

Sunday, Aug. 7, at 7:00, the young adults will meet at the home of Stan Thompson for a hamburger fry. Bob Kevenen will lead the discussion. Ruth Herman will be in charge of the food.

The young adult Sunday school class is held each Sunday morning at 9:45 at the parsonage. Mr.
Ludlow is the teacher. The class is growing each Sunday. Everyone is welcome.

Owyhee Community Church News

Fourteen registrations cards have been turned in to date for the summer Bible camp which will be held at Quaker Hill near McCall on the Payette Lakes. The camp is of one weeks duration and the dates are August 8 through 15. All campers are asked to have all their luggage at the church by 8 o'clock Monday morning so they can be packed on the truck. A bus will be waiting at the same hour to transport campers to McCall. Those eligible for camp are any boy or girl 12 years of age and up. For more information call Rev. Himple at 2737.

Last Thursday night the young people of the church played the Adrian Presbyterian game here at the church. Owyhee won by the score of 15-2. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were enjoyed at the parsonage following the game.

Weekend visitors at the Rev.
Kenneth Himple home included Paul Himple of Seattle, Wash., Jack Henderson of Bothell, Wash., Rev. Keith Himple of Donnelly, Ida., and two of the young people of his church, Larry and Howard Day. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Coon and children of Longview, Wash., Rev. Marvin McLean of Nampa and Miss Evelyn Himple of Seattle.

A baseball game is scheduled with the Willow Creek and Jamieson churches here at the church on Thursday night at 7 o'clock.
Refreshments will be held at the Donnie Brewer home following the game.

Last Wednesday the Women's Missionary group met at the church and they finished putting away the dishes in the church basement. The Women's group have painted the entire kitchen and put coverings on all the counters and have put the electric stove in place.

The people of the church are reminded to set aside canned food for Marjorie Benedict who will be returning to Africa in September to continue her missionary work. It is hoped that 300 cans of food can be given her before she leaves. Glass jars cannot be shipped so only cans will be acceptable.

On Sunday evening during the regular evening service, Rev. Marvin McLean of Nampa will show last year's camp slides. This will give the parents an idea where their children will be spending the week of Bible camp. Also to be shown at the same time will be the Bible school pictures that were taken by Ken Lorensen,
