

Bonita Ruth Post, Former Nyssa Girl Wed In Church Ceremony

Word has been received in Nyssa of the marriage of Bonita Ruth Post, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Post, former Nyssa residents, and Jerry P. Shults of Myrtle Point, Ore., son of Melvin Shults, Pusan, Korea and Mrs. Frank Witenstein of Los Angeles, Calif.

The wedding ceremony took place Monday evening, July 25, at 8 p. m. in the First Church of the Nazarene in Roseburg, Ore., with Rev. Robert D. Hempel officiating.

The sweetheart theme was carried out in the church decorations with a huge white heart against the deep red velvet drapes of the church flanked by candelabra and baskets of mixed summer flowers.

The bride, lovely in a blue grey suit and carrying the traditional white Bible was given in marriage by her father.

Her corsage of peach gladioli and red rosebuds was made and designed by Mrs. Margorie Marsh as were those worn by the maid of honor, Miss Joanne Rose of Roseburg and the bridesmaid, Miss Wilma Jean Marshall, also of Roseburg. Miss Rose wore a pale blue suit and Miss Marshall wore a pink and grey suit. Both attendants wore gladioli corsages.

Gene Sconce, formerly of Payette, and William Post, formerly of Nyssa attended the bridegroom.

The wedding march was played by Lee Marsh, who also accompanied his daughter, Barbara and Ken Rosenbush as they sang, "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. Robert Hempel as she sang "Because."

Church decorations, corsages and the guest book were handled by Mrs. Marsh and Barbara. Candles were lighted by the ushers, Leroy Trowbridge and Robert Post.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Post chose a blue-grey and white suit with red accessories and a red rosebud corsage. Parents of the bridegroom were unable to attend the wedding.

Following the double ring ceremony, a family reception was
