

Roswell Baptist Church Scene Of Wilkerson-Parrell Vows

Before an arch covered with dainty pink floribunda roses, Miss Yvonne Wilkerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilkerson of Parma, Rt. 2, exchanged vows with Ellis Lee Parrill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emery E. Parrill of Roswell. The double ring ceremony took place at 2 p.m., Friday, Aug. 5, in the Roswell Baptist church with the Reverend Irving Frank officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown which featured a fitted French lace bodice and peplum skirt over heavy slipper satin. Her nylon net veil was held in place by a para outlined in pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with tiny red roses on a white ribbon.

The maid of honor, Gladys Wilkerson, sister of the bride, wore a gown of pink nylon net over taffeta as did the bridesmaids, Mrs. Lloyd Parrill of Adrian, sister-in-law of the groom and Patricia Callison of Roswell. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with tiny red roses and the bridesmaids wore gladioli corsages.

Mary Lou Parrill, youngest sister of the groom, was the flower girl. Teddy Wilkerson was candlelighter and Freddy Wilkerson was the ring bearer. Both are brothers of the bride.

Best man was Lloyd Parrill of Adrian, a brother of the groom. Other attendants were Robert M. Maggard, Parma Rt. 1, brother-in-law of the groom and Howard Parrill of Roswell, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother chose a pink nylon dress with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding and the groom's mother wore navy blue nylon net over taffeta and trimmed in pink with navy blue accessories.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Ruel Farrell of Roswell, pianist and Mrs. Robert Maggard of Parma, sister of the groom was the soloist. Other singers were a quartet made up of two girls, Mary Graham and Lorraine Van
