SMOKY TURKEY CASSEROLE WITH RICE

Left-overs are fun when you plan a Smoky Turkey Casserole. You can add new variety to your menus by dressing up turkey—or chicken—in this brand new smoky-taste dish. Better make the full portion—everybody will be asking for more.

6 slices of bacon, diced
1/4 cup flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3 cups milk
1/4 pound smoke-flavored cheese, cubed
2 cups diced cooked turkey
2 tablespoons minced pimiento
3 cups cooked rice

Cook bacon until crisp. Measure off 1/4 cup of the drippings. Drain bacon on absorbent paper.

Stir flour, salt, and pepper into bacon drippings. Add milk all at once, stirring until smooth. Cook until thickened, stirring occasionally. Add cheese and stir until melted.

Stir in turkey and pimiento and heat thoroughly. Fold in rice and bacon. Pour into 6 individual 1-cup casseroles, or a 1 1/2-quart casserole. Sprinkle with paprika, if desired.

Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 20 to 30 minutes, or until thoroughly heated. Yields six servings.
