Episcopal Church News

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

"Oh God, who makest us glad with the weekly remembrance of the glorious resurrection of thy Son our Lord; vouchsafe us this day such blessing through our thoughts of thee, that the days to come may be spent in thy service; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

We had a great day last Sunday. The Rt. Rev. Lane W. Barton of Bend, Ore., confirmed nine new members, preached to a congregation of 90, served Holy Communion to 44. There were 52 who gathered in the parish hall for dinner following the service.

Have you remembered that tonight is the progressive card party sponsored by the Guild? The time is 8 p. m.

St. Paul's had a study group throughout the summer on Friday evenings under the direction of Grant Rinehart, lay reader. We are beginning again Sunday evening, Oct. 2, 7:00 p. m. This meeting is open to anyone who wishes to attend and who wants to learn about the Episcopal interpretation of God's action in history and in the life of the world today. We shall be ordering texts soon so be there this first session so your will be up with the group all the way.

"Good Christian people, I bid your prayers for Christ's holy Catholic church, the blessed company of all faithful people. Amen."

(Prayers from the Book of Common Prayer).

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to those who helped in any way who sent cards and flowers at the time of the death of our mother, Florence Stitt Bybee.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bybee and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence King and family.
