

Evelyn Nicholson Feted Prior To Leaving Nyssa

Feted by a round of parties last week was Evelyn Nicholson, who left this week to join her husband at Lakeview, Ore., where he has taken a position with the same commission.

Employees at the Amalgamated Sugar Co., office and fieldmen and their wives, gave a dinner party last Friday evening at the Eastside in Ontario for Mrs. Nicholson. Places were laid for 25 guests and Jared Lewis, manager of the Sugar Co., presented her with an electric blanket as a gift from the group.

Following dinner, an informal evening was spent by the guests. Tuesday evening, Mrs. Jack Littercob entertained with a handkerchief shower for Evelyn. Mrs. Duke Hipp was co-hostess.

Eighteen guests spent the evening playing games and prize winners were Mrs. Robert Heldt, high and Mrs. Gerald Curry, low. Dessert was served at the close of the evening by the hostesses. Mrs. Nicholson was honored at a no-host supper Wednesday evening by the Nyssa Jaycees, of which Evelyn was a charter member and current treasurer.

Following the supper at the Dale Bingham home, the guest of honor was presented with a gift of jewelry as a token of appreciation and remembrance from the group.
