

Hold Parents Progress Meeting

Mrs. Wilton Jackson conducted a discussion group on the subject of "Shy Children," on Monday Oct. 24. Highlights of the meeting answered such questions as: how shyness affected the child's understanding with other children, what teachers could do to help, how parents could contribute to the child's adjustment at home and in the community, and what our school program has to offer a timid child.

Those present were, Mrs. Leonard Hewett, Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Ward Weineke, Mrs. Dwight Mason, and special education instructor, Mrs. J. Rigney. Light refreshments were served by the hostess during the meeting.

The meeting next week will be on the subject of "Adolescence." Anyone interested in the subject should contact your chairman, Mrs. Dwight Mason as soon as possible.
