Episcopal Church News

"O God, the strength of all who put their trust in thee; Mercifully accept our prayers; and because, through the weakness of our mortal nature, we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in keeping thy commandments we may please thee, both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Sunday, Nov. 20, Sunday next before Advent. Lessons for morning prayer are: Psalm 145; Jeremiah 3:14-18; I Corinthians 11:11-32. In addition to the regular outline of the morning prayer service, we are using the Litany on page 54 in the Prayer book. You are asked to read the Litany at least two or three times before coming to the service Sunday.

There are two specifically Christian festivals in the year, Christmas and Easter, therefore it is not with out some serious thought that we should enter the advent season in order first, to grasp anew its meaning and second, be enabled to reflect this "new" meaning to those with whom we associate. The Litany is especially helpful for this purpose.

St. Paul's has been invited to join the Methodist church in a union Thanksgiving service to be in the Methodist church, Wednesday, Nov. 23, at 8 p.m.

Almost every night someone is working at the church. We are making splendid progress, but we

Services Monday For D. E. Mitchell

David Mitchell, well-known retired Nyssa area farmer, died suddenly at Reno, Nev., last Thursday from a heart attack. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell were enroute to southern Nevada on a vacation trip planning to return through Utah.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the second Ward LDS chapel with Bishop Lloyd Lewis officiating. Interment was in Nyssa cemetery.

David Emery Mitchell was born January 2, 1895 at Salt Lake City, and with his family, came to the Adrian community in March, 1937. In 1940, they moved to a farm near Nyssa where they resided until his recent retirement when they made their home in the city of Nyssa.

Mr. Mitchell was a member of the LDS Second Ward, Eagle's Lodge and the Elks.

Survivors are his wife, Evelyn, one son, Joel Mitchell of Nyssa, one daughter, Mrs. Joe J. Olson of Roseburg, Ore., three grandchildren, four brothers and five sisters.

Relief Society Conference At LDS Second Ward

The annual conference of the Relief Society of the Nyssa second ward was held Sunday evening at the stake house on Alberta avenue, beginning at 7:30 with President Arvel Child, Bishop Lloyd Lewis, and Mrs. Wright Child and Mrs. Trueman Barlow of Vale in attendance.

Theme of the evening was "The Road To Peace." President Thelma Bybee conducted the program, which included invocation, Hallie Child; sustaining of officers and teachers; secretary Eva Drown, at which time 38 visiting teachers, (women who visit the homes of members of the entire ward,) were sustained.

Greetings, report and theme, by Mrs. Bybee. Talk, "Peace Begins In The Home" Bernice Sanders; mother's chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Joel Mitchell, sang "Father In Heaven"; Mrs. Paul Blaylock; choral scriptural reading by a group of 15 women, led by Mrs. Edward Fields. R. S. stake board member Mrs. Wright Child and Bishop Lewis both gave talks.

A vocal quartet sang "Love At Home." Benediction was by Mrs. Joe Hartle. Mrs. Glenn Fredrikson played both the prelude and postlude music.

A large plaque depicting the "Road To Peace" in metalics was placed in front of the pulpit. Many vases of fall flowers adorned the rostrum, tables and piano.

President Child read to the audience a notation at the bottom of each program, "The Gal wife married will make a better wife and mother if she attends Relief Society meetings."

All women regardless of whether or not they are members of the L.D.S. church are invited to attend the following meetings:

1st Tuesday, theology lessons, Alyce Williams class instructor.
2nd Tuesday, sewing from 10:30 until 4. Clara Oxnam and Emma Kesler, instructors.
3rd Tuesday, literature lessons, Nell Bair, class leader.
4th Tuesday, social science lessons on government, Miletta Fife, class leader.

at the Malheur Memorial hospital in Nyssa. Those planning to sew all day provide their own lunch. If you can go only for a few hours that will help and if those who have portable sewing machines will bring them the sewing will go faster.
