This year millions of Americans of all faiths will join in daily Bible reading from Thanksgiving to Christmas in the twelfth annual observance of Worldwide Bible Reading, sponsored by the American Bible Society.
The program, which began when a U. S. marine on Guadalcanal wrote his mother asking that the family join him in reading the same passages of Scripture each day, has spread in scope to the peoples of more than forty nations.
The readings are without note or comment, and one may use whatever version of the Bible he prefers.
Below are the readings for each day, in the theme of personal faith as selected by numerous people from many denominations.

CLASSIFIED FOR RESULTS

Episcopal Church News

Let us pray.

"Blessed Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy Holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast, the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen."

Sunday is the second Sunday in Advent and brings us to within three weeks of Christmas Day, the remembrance of and the renewal of the awareness of the entrance into the world, communicated to faith through faith, of Jesus of Nazareth, the Lord of history, life, and death. The lessons for this day call us to renewed look at the recordings of those men who looked forward to, experienced, and came to believe the story of God's revelation. Psalm 119: 1-16; Isaiah 55; 2 Timothy 3.

"O Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world; Grant us thy peace."

MIA Chorus Sings At Lucky Clover Dance
