Do As I Say, Not As I Do

American adults are turning sissy and picking on the kids!

Time was when they lambasted sin, unscrupulous politicians and the Communists. But the sinners continued to sin, the unscrupulous politicians continued their graft and Communists continued to pack confidential information back to the Ruskiens. The public has given up on these adversaries and turned to a new whipping boy — the juvenile.

It could be that juvenile delinquency has a pleasant sound that rolls off the tongue, else there wouldn't be so many tongues sounding the phrase.

Adults should check a few points that might contribute to "juvenile delinquency," an overworked colloquialism, if ever there was one.

A poor example is set insofar as respect for the law is concerned when hundreds of existing laws are broken by adults every second. Nyssa has 25-mile-per-hour speed signs at all entrances to town. How many adults obey them? There are stop signs throughout town. How often do you see cars, driven by God-fearing, respectable adults, coast right through. We can name dozens of other infractions that are common among public officials, parents, teachers, ministers and other civic leaders who should set a better example.

You don't need to look for broken homes, alcoholics and ex-cons to find such prevalence of disrespect for the law.

These rules, made by men, might be ridiculous, but why aren't they changed or repealed? To ignore them, and hundreds more, has become a part of our everyday life and too many don't mind telling their children from the time they can walk until they reach 21, why they should disobey certain laws and adhere to others.

Where do young minds draw the line between right and wrong?

Judge not thy friend until thou standest in his place.

Tuesday evening, the We-2 group had its evening meeting in the basement of the church, where an oyster supper was served to 19. This film has made an all time record in the number of prints made, according to a census taken on religious films. Robert L. A. Leo, executive secretary of the religious agency of the Lutheran church productions, Inc. reported that some 2,500 prints were made and released during October, the reformation month. The average number of religious film prints is from 300 to 500.

"O Lord Jesus Christ, who at thy first coming didst send thy messengers to prepare thy way before thee; Grant that the ministers and stewards of thy mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready thy way, by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at thy second coming to judge the world we may be found an acceptable people in thy sight, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever, one God, world without end. Amen."

With the third Sunday in Advent we are beginning to turn within our hearts to the East, watching for, waiting for, expecting the rising of the star that rid us of all that mars, that blurs, that destroys the sense of peace and righteousness that the forgiveness of God through Jesus Christ alone can give us.
