Owyhee Community Church News

Thought of the week:
If you don't believe in cooperation, just observe a wagon with one wheel off.

The We-2 group of the church held its monthly get-together in the basement of the church Tuesday evening. Mrs. Homer Whitman was in charge of planning the meeting and games.

Some 32 were present at the farewell party given for the John Price family in the basement of the church Thursday evening. Refreshments were served after which a gift was presented to the Prices from the Sunday School. Mr. Price has taken over the work of pastoring of the Grace Bible Church in Parma.

The monthly youth rally of the American Sunday School Union will be held in the church basement Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Following the games planned by Sally Reed and Annabel Arai, Earl Wilson will lead the group in singing. Rev. Marvin McLean, ASSU Missionary, will show a 30 minute film entitled, "The Man That Forgot God."

Because of Youth Rally, the regular prayer meeting and Bible study was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cooper.

Sunday evening during the regular evening service, Rev. Marvin McLean of Nampa, ASSU missionary for this area, will be guest speaker. He will tell of his work in establishing the Sunday schools of this area and then will show colored slides of those places.

Coming in February will be the Sunday school convention of the ASSU to be held in Caldwell.

For handwork projects in Bible camp this year, there is a need for one pound coffee cans. We will need about 125 of them so won't you start saving them for camp.

Adrian Presbyterian Church Notes

Regular church clubs and Junior Missionary Society meets each Monday afternoon after school at the church.

Choir practice each Wednesday night at 8 p. m. at the church.

Sunday afternoon, Jan. 29, 3:00 p. m. the new Southminster United Presbyterian Church will be dedicated. This church is located in Boise at Overland Road and Hummel Drive, on the bench. Any local people who can, are urged to attend this church dedication.

The motion picture, "Martin Luther," was shown Sunday evening to an appreciative audience.

A chicken supper, sponsored by the Boy Scouts, served Saturday evening in the church basement was a success financially.

Thanks are expressed for the fine response in work on the new Sunday School rooms and parsonage this past week, also to those ladies who helped serve lunch to the workmen during the noon hour.

Nyssa LDS Stake To Sponsor Cubs

Two new cub scout packs are being organized under the direction of Jack Peterson of the Ore-Ida council.

The packs are being sponsored by the LDS stake primary association under the direction of Mrs. Elwood Flinders, president and Jack Hartley of Ontario who is the institutional representative.

The Nyssa 1st ward pack was organized Saturday morning with Clarence Lancaster, cub master and Jack Stewart, assistant cub master. Den mothers will be Mrs. Celia Lancaster, Mrs. Wilda Stewart, Mrs. Lois Anderson and Mrs. Marion Child. The meeting was under the direction of Mrs. Taft Pett and Dennis Fife.

Owyhee ward met Thursday evening with Don Walker as cubmaster and den mothers, Mrs. Ruth Barrett, Mrs. Georgia Barton and Mrs. Marion Haney. The meeting was conducted by Lee Stoker.

to institute next summer.

The church board, the pastor and the entire congregation wish to thank Mrs. Turner for the very beautiful flowers for the altar, which she has been donating during December and January. We appreciate your kindness, Mrs. Turner.

Last week the men of the church did the cement work and moved the garage to the parsonage lot. We extend our thanks.
