An Education Coming Up

Assuming that Sen. Wayne Morse is the Democrats' choice for U. S. senator and Douglas McKay wins approval of Oregon Republicans, there can be no doubt whatsoever that Oregonians will experience one of the most ferocious political campaigns in history.

Oregonians, even the most versed in politics, should be able to learn a lot from the 1956 senatorial race. For the past two and one-half years McKay has been a favorite target of public power factions and has not answered each charge as it came up.

The repeated charges of give-away and big business favoritism have not been satisfactorily answered other than in a few national magazines that do not have general circulation. Have no doubt that Oregon's former governor will have some answers that will settle a lot of questions in the minds of thousands of Oregon voters.

Sen. Morse and Sen. Neuberger have talent for making any political opponent look black in the eyes of their followers. Give them six weeks, some radio and TV time, a few columns of newspaper space and they can reduce any innocent six-months-old child to the same category as Genghis Khan.

It is sometimes said that political speeches never win or lose any voters. If that is the case, which we doubt, 1956 will be the exception. In spite of the definite line between views of the two potential candidates and their followers, there are thousands of other Oregon people who are wondering what all the shouting is about.

The eyes of most other states are upon Oregon and the outcome of that one U.S. senatorial contest may influence many national policies for years to come.

Stranger In The County

By Bill Campbell

Here's an amusing story that happened lately although I'm changing the names to protect the guilty!

Seems there was a self-appointed employment agent here in Nyssa who contacted nine colored boys promising them all jobs fighting fire in the Boise area (at this time of year of all things). There was one minor stipulation: the prospective workers were tabbed for $5 apiece by the "agent" to defray yet-to-be explained expense involved in lining up the job.

It turned out there were no jobs after the boys made the trip. There was also no $45 refund. But a tit-for-tat play took place which should have more than evened the score.

All nine of the fellows simply moved in with the "agent" upon their return. They went through his groceries in short order, saw to it they received more, used the "agent's" car and gas and in general lived high off the hog.

What a world this would be if everyone used the same method to collect outstanding bills! Bet banker Hewitt wouldn't have to draw a check for years.

Dropped in to hear the Nyssa community chorus recently. Their rendition of "Battle Hymn of the Republic" was outstanding and I hope it will be included when they present their Easter music Sunday evening, 8 p. m. at the LDS Stake House.

My boss is puzzled. Caims there are three new marked off parking spots in front of the city hall all for police CARS. It's the plural that worries him.

Joe Chamberlain at Eder's, Henry Quast at Everybody's Fred Bracken and Bob Lamb of Nyssa Motors all remarked how pleased they were with the response to their respective ads placed in last week's paper. Was quite a pleasant shock. Usually the only report we ever get is when we misspell a word or goof on a price. Thanks, men.

If Nyssa doesn't have a theme song, why don't they adopt "The Breeze and I"? Course, sometimes a little gust is fun, especially when you consider the position of my desk.

Got a "now what?" feeling Tuesday when a state police officer came into the office, but all he wanted was the paper to pass along information to you folks, especially now that small trailers will be more and more in use. It seems nigh on to everybody has been breaking the law as regards to signal lights on trailers.

Don't say we didn't warn you. Besides, trailer lights remind me of Christmas. Bye now and Buy Nyssa.

Owyhee Community Church News

Thought of the Week:
A hearse is a poor vehicle in which to go to church—better go while you are alive, it will do you more good.

Rev. Kenneth Himple will speak Easter Sunday morning at 11 o'clock on "What Resurrection Promises Me." If you have no regular church to attend you are cordially invited to the services of the church.

Rev. and Mrs. Demcy Mylar, known as the County Preacher ended their 10 days of Evangelistic meetings at the church on Wednesday evening. Monday night a radio broadcast on tape was made which can be heard on KFXD on Saturday afternoon at 5:30. The meetings were a big success with nearly a church full each night for the meetings. Through Sunday evening services 10 had come to know Christ as their personal Saviour.

Prayer Meeting and Bible Study will be held Wednesday evening at 8:00 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cooper.

On Sunday evening, communion will be observed at the church during the regular evening service.

Adrian Presbyterian Church Notes

A coffee hour was held at the new Sunday School rooms, after the morning worship services last Sunday morning. Gifts were brought to be used for the entertainment of the pre-school children. The 20-40 Club served refreshments.

Letters to Editor

Signed letters to the editor are welcomed and will be printed if they do not contain comments of a libelous nature or attacks on religious and racial groups. Publication of the letters does not signify the agreement of this newspaper with opinions expressed.

Dear Editor:

This letter is not an apology, it is a rebuttal and am sorry it could not have been made the next day, after last week's paper was published.

In the first place, I did not say that Mr. Elfering (our Sheriff) ridiculed me for accepting checks; I said "a sheriff" did so. I wrote a letter to Mr. Elfering February 18th, about the bogus check and he did not see me or answer, until my article appeared almost a month later. I told him that the man claimed the check was in payment for pumping a septic tank and that he lived at Weiser. I told the District Attorney that I believed the man who was at my place earlier the same day, in Pontiac car with Calif. license, had a hand in the bogus check; he also pumped septic tanks and refused to show me his writing. I asked a Sheriff to investigate, which he would not do and that is when he ridiculed me for accepting checks. The man I wanted investigated has a criminal record.

I do not even know what Mr. Elfering could have been referring to, about the Johnson or Jhonson check he claimed I accepted and did not notice the spelling of name Johnson, I have never had such a check. I had a forged check passed on me (not a Johnson or Jhonson instrument).

Two other forged checks of same amount, were passed by the same boy, claiming that the checks were for work, backing spuds. I took car license number and told Mr. Elfering that I would judge the boy to be 21 or 22, along with more description I gave. He was picked up at Idaho Falls and I was subpoenaed to District Court at Vale, Sept. 1, 1954. The D. Attorney recommended to Jury, that because of the boy's age which was 18 (not 16 as Mr. Elfering stated) and that he might reform in army, restitution of the money involved in checks be made and the boy dismissed of charges. The boy was released, the other checks paid, but I did not get mine, although it was I who had taken the license number and gave description well enough that the boy was apprehended and pleaded guilty to charges. Perhaps members of that Jury will remember the above statements and facts.

I was Constable and Deputy Sheriff 12 years in Kansas. Also served 7 years on City Police Force there. I too, believe in giving the law enforcement officers a break, but I also believe that all are entitled to fair treatment and I have not received a square deal.

The feuding, if classified as such, is not political (on my side), as Mr. Elfering is a Republican and I am, also, I may not be able to ascertain a person's exact age but, am sure that I know how to spell Johnson.
