NYSSA FIREMEN and a fair percentage of city residents were routed out of their beds about 1:30 a.m. May 30 when the residence of Willie Brixey in the 700 block on North First was gutted by a raging fire. Mrs. Brixey and daughter who were asleep in the bedroom escaped when neighbors kicked open a window and helped them out. An elderly roomer in the basement also fled to safety. Aside from a few personal possessions everything was lost. Firemen thought the blaze was caused by a refrigerator short.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bennett of Santa Barbara, Calif. visited over the weekend with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Rush and family of Nyssa.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gauvain and girls of Alliance, Nebr., visited here for a week and a half with the J. R. Winchells, Mrs. Zora and his mother, Mrs. Gauvain.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborne and Mr. Knapp of Klamath Falls, visited with Mrs. Zora Osborne over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Langley and Gary of McMinnville, were overnight houseguests Saturday at the W. D. Holcomb home.
