Idaho Falls Temple Ceremony Unites Nina E. Stephens and Ronald Cooper

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cooper

Miss Nina Elaine Stephens and Ronald Eugene Cooper of Nyssa were united in marriage at a single ring ceremony Tuesday afternoon, May 29 in the Idaho Falls LDS temple with President Kilpack officiating. Bishop Lloyd Lewis of the Nyssa Second Ward attended the couple.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. L. Clyde Stephens of 412 Ehrgood Ave. and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Glendon L. Cooper of 116 N. 6th St., Nyssa.

The bride was lovely in a ballerina length gown of white chantilly lace over white cotton satin fashioned with long sleeves, basque waistline, Peter Pan collar and scalloped hemline. Her illusion veil was held by a tiara of orange blossoms formed of Mother of Pearl and rhinestones. The entire ensemble was designed and made by the bride. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

A wedding reception Thursday evening in the Nyssa LDS Second Ward chapel honored the newlyweds.

Mrs. Glenn C. Stephens, sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor attired in a ballerina length gown of aqua nylon. Bridesmaids were Loretta Stephens, sister of the bride and the Misses Carole Cooper and Linda Cooper, sisters of the groom. They wore ballerina length gowns of orchid, pink and blue and white respectively with corsages of roses.

Everett Dille of Ontario was best man.

For the occasion, the bride's and bridegroom's mothers chose afternoon dresses with rosebud corsages.

Peonies in shades of pink and white formed a background setting for the reception. The refreshment table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated in white with pink rosebuds and topped by a miniature bride and groom. Assisting with serving of refreshments were Mrs. D. O. Bybee and Mrs. Ray Drown.

Mrs. Everett Dille of Ontario was in charge of the guest book and the gifts were received by the Misses Jeanine Drown, Dolores Van Zelf, Marlene Cooper and Sharon Sturges assisted by the bridesmaids.

Wayne Dean Chesnut of Moscow was master of ceremonies for the program which included two selections "Temple by the River" and "If I Loved You" by the Blue-Notes trio composed of Nancy Skeen, Janice Lewis and Mrs. Val Garner, the former Denie May; piano solo by Glenda Raye Foote and vocal solo, "Because" by Mark Moncur. YOUR Credit Record IS AN OPEN BOOK

Preserving a good credit record is not only a matter of convenience, but of personal prestige.

The files of the Credit Bureau show how you pay your bills. This record is available not only to the members of the Credit Bureau in your own community, but to the members of more than 2,000 other Credit Bureaus throughout the United States and Canada.

The Credit Bureau does not make your credit record. It merely keeps the record. If you buy more than you can afford—and don't pay promptly—these facts will be available to those from whom you may want to obtain further credit.

Your Credit Record is an open book—written by yourself in the way you meet your obligations. The only way to maintain it is by paying every bill on the date it is due.
