

Meals In Minutes With Canned Meat

Here's a dinner ready from start to finish in 30 minutes with canned corned beef hash as the mainstay and with tomato halves and zucchini as the vegetable fillip.

By knowing canned meat choices, you can increase menu ideas the short and easy summer-way. Some 113 different products are offered ranging from baby food meats to wieners; from small cans of potted and deviled meat spreads to 12-ounce luncheon meat, to big 14-pound hams. A pantry shelf supply of meats in cans permits quick menu variety.

The trick for the 30-minute dinner is a simple baking sheet assembly job. Zucchini slices are foil-wrapped and baked for 15 minutes while you open the can of meat and fix the tomatoes. The meat and tomatoes bake the last 15 minutes of cooking time along with the zucchini.

30 Minute Dinner

- 1 1/2 pounds zucchini, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, divided, 1/4 teaspoon oregano, 1 can (1 pound) corned beef hash, 2 tomatoes, 1/4 teaspoon sugar

Wash zucchini; cut in 1/4-inch slices. Place in 24-inch long strip of aluminum foil. Dot with 3 tablespoons of the butter; sprinkle with salt and pepper. Wrap aluminum foil around zucchini; seal tightly. Place on baking sheet. Bake in a very hot oven, (500°F.) 15 minutes. While zucchini is baking, open can of corned beef hash at both ends to remove in one piece. Cut into four slices. Cut tomatoes in half. Dot with remaining 1 tablespoon butter; sprinkle with salt, pepper, sugar and oregano. Place corned beef slices and tomato halves on baking sheet with zucchini. Reduce heat to a hot oven, (450°F.) and bake 15 minutes longer. YIELD: 4 servings.

Implement Firm's Creditors Meet

A meeting of creditors of Western Corrugator Co., which has been adjudged bankrupt, was held Wednesday morning at the firm's office in Nyssa. Howard E. Dixon, referee in bankruptcy, presided at the meeting.

John Denek, Ontario accountant, was named trustee with a committee composed of Clay D. Myers, Pocatello and Ray Huffman and Kenneth Renstrom, both of Nyssa. Named appraisers for the firm's assets were Huffman, Bernard Eastman and Otto Bauman.

When a petition was filed in federal court, assets were listed as $62,000 and debts were reported to be $125,000.

barary and organized the Civic club in 1927. She is also a charter member of the Eastern Star and a member of the Episcopal church. The Tensens had four children, Mrs. Grant Rinehart, Tiena Bothamley, Los Angeles, Louise Peterson, Los Angeles and Mrs. Dick G. Tensen of Nyssa.

The story wouldn't be complete without mentioning "Hansie," Hilda's Dachshund who is welcome all over town — well, almost everywhere. And there's Pat the cat, regal and indifferent to callers. It must also be mentioned that Hilda has always been a staunch Democrat and has served as precinct committeewoman.

Mrs. Tensen is a long way from retiring to a rocking chair. She wants to keep busy and will do so whether it be work or whether it be in service to the community.

"Afterall," Hilda concluded, "I've been a part of this community for a long time and I expect to see its continual growth and contribute what I can to that growth."

PROFITS FROM FFA PROJECTS REALIZED

two acres that grossed $724 and another who grossed $972 from three and one half acres, had only $232 expense and came up with a net showing of $740.

Combined efforts of the FFA class produced 6,731 pounds of butterfat, and 365,274 pounds of whole milk. Six boys raising sheep for wool, produced 234 pounds and two boys with poultry projects were responsible for 1,560.

Grain Unpopular

In the grain division, one lad produced 75 bushels of barley on one and one half acres, two produced 240 bushels of oats on five acres and three were responsible for 1,292 bushels of corn on 11 1/2 acres. Mixed grains were grown on nine and one-half acres which produced 616 bushels.

Total potato production on 11 acres by three different boys was 1,665 sacks for a net of $1,126. Sugar beets totaled 104 tons on 10 3/4 acres for a net profit of $2,084. The sugar beet project was carried on by four boys.

Pulliam said there is nothing "easy" about the FFA program, but hastened to add that he and the boys enjoy just about every phase of learning by doing.

In addition to the various crop and animal projects, many hours are devoted to study and actual work with farm machinery. Boys are able to build trailers, animal feeders and just about everything else that a farmer in an area finds need for and realizes more profits by building than by buying those needs all prefabricated.

Further, the surplus involved can be used only for street purposes and cannot be used to reduce the amount of tax moneys needed since it is derived from state gas tax appropriations," it was explained.

Middaugh said that he has been questioned about a new appropriation of $2400 for a secretary and emphasized that such a salary is only tentative and will not be expended without approval of the council.

To make an accurate appraisal of just what it would cost a taxpayer, it should be remembered that a person owning a home assessed at $1000 would pay only $5.50 a year additional taxes and a business firm with $10,000 assessed valuation would pay only $55 additional for the year if the city is allowed to exceed the 6 percent and fulfill the budget, it was pointed out.
