The Nyssa Methodist church was the scene of the evening wedding July 7 uniting in marriage Miss Lila Mae Holmes and Donald Royse. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Holmes of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Royse of Gooding, Idaho.

The double ring candlelight ceremony was performed by the Reverend Paul Ludlow before a white draped altar set with a bronze cross and a white open Bible. The background was set with bronze candelabra with white tapers. The church was decorated with baskets of daisies, lilies, phlox and baby breath, the pews with lilies of the valley and blue ribbon and windows with white tapers and trailing vines.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was lovely in a waltz length gown of white lace and nylon tulle over satin. It featured a tiered ruffled skirt, long pointed sleeves and a low neck with sequins. Her veil was held by a seed pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of red roses and lily of the valley with white streamers on a white bible.

Mrs. James Edens, matron of honor was attired in a light pink satin gown and Miss Adelle Hamilton, bridesmaid wore a dark pink satin gown. Both carried white carnation nosegays with blue streamers. Sherill Royse, sister of the bridegroom was flower girl in a white and green nylon gown and wrist corsage.

Merle Royse, brother of the bridegroom served as best man and Dean Holmes, and Earl Royse, were ushers. Melvin Goodson was ring bearer.

For the occasion the bride's mother chose rose silk Shantung and the bridegroom's mother light blue afternoon dresses. Both wore white carnations.

Vocal soloist was Mrs. Mark Hartley accompanied by Mrs. Steven Talbot.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement. The refreshment table was covered with a white crocheted cloth over pink. The pink and white wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom under a pale pink heart, with a net ruffle decorated with pink roses and buds.

Mrs. Lynn Snodgrass and Mrs. Gilbert Holmes served the wedding cake and pouring were Mrs. Alfred Adams and Mrs. Robert Holmes. Mrs. Roy Rookstool, Roy Holmes and Mrs. Frank Byers had charge of the decorations. In charge of the gifts were Mrs. Austin Goodson and Betty Byers, and Miss Karen Fife the guest book.
