Episcopal Church News

"Grant to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

The prayer above is the Collect for the Ninth Sunday after Trinity, this coming Sunday. Trinity season is that part of the year in which special emphasis is given to the work of the Trinity in the Church which means evangelism. Imagine the state of a person who is "enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord." The thought is staggering, but the reality of this is it is taking place in a person's life and community is absolutely breath-taking.

The lessons for morning prayer, 9:00 a. m., are: Ezekiel 14:1-11; I Corinthians 10:1-13; and Psalm 115. Read them before Sunday.

Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 11 and 12, the congregation of St. Paul's will assemble at Ascension Summer School grounds, Cove, Ore., for a weekend together. The Sunday service will be held in the chapel there and we will break up after lunch Sunday. More information will be forthcoming, but mark those dates on the calendar now.

Senior Camp will begin Aug. 20 at Cove and run to the 30. You should be getting the applications in now for that camp. This is a camp for all youth who will be 10th graders this fall on through college. For more information call Betty Rinehart 2415.

"Consider, and hear me, O Lord my God; lighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death; I will sing of the Lord, because he hath dealt so lovingly with me; yea, I will praise the Name of the Lord Most Highest." (From Psalm 13).
