Miss Frances Mellis-Willis Ludlow Exchange Wedding Vows in Roseburg

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ludlow

Married recently in the First Methodist church in Roseburg, were Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Ludlow who are making their home this summer at 1033 Oakland Ave. Piedmont, Calif. Amid baskets of calla lilies, peonies and English iris Miss Frances Anne Mellis, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mellis, Roseburg, became the bride of Willis Helman Ludlow, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul L. Ludlow of Nyssa. The bridegroom's father assisted by the Rev. Ellsworth Tilton, pastor of the Roseburg Methodist church, performed the impressive double ring ceremony. Preceding the ceremony a candle-light communion service was administered to the wedding party and families by the Rev. Ludlow and Rev. Ross Knotts of the Ashland, Ore. Methodist church.

"O Perfect Love" was sung by Ernest Shippen, student at Pacific School of Religion, accompanied by Mrs. Homer W. Grow who also played the organ for the procession, "Cortege Nuptial" and the "Hymn to Joy," as the recessional. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white lace and net over satin. Her shoulder veil fell from a tiara of nylon and rhinestones. She carried a nosegay of white spring flowers, delicate pink and red roses.

Miss Marilyn Ludlow, Nyssa, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, wearing a pink ballerina length gown fashioned with net overskirt and taffeta jacket. The bridesmaids, Miss Jacquie Meares, Eugene, in green and Miss Natalie Hodgson, Porterville, Cal. in yellow, wore gowns designed to match that of the maid of honor. Each carried contrasting pastel nosegays.

Donald Hobson of Buhl, Ida. was best man and ushers were Malcom Mellis, Seattle, brother of the bride, and Thomas Foster, Nyssa, and Stuart Shaw, Shelton, Wash.

Candlelighters were Miss Kathleen Oakley and Mrs. Floyd Irwin, both of Roseburg. They wore dresses of lavender and pink fashioned to match the bride's attendants.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mellis wore a pink brocaded two-piece dress with pink accessories and a corsage of white roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a gray-blue two-piece dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The reception followed in the church parlors with members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in charge.

The tiered wedding cake was topped by a tiny nosegay of sweetheart roses. Mrs. Theodore Bond and Mrs. Malcom Mellis served. Mrs. Edna Ludlow and Mrs. S. Raynor Smith served coffee and Mrs. Clyde Beard served punch. Mrs. Darrell Crossler had charge of the guest book and Miss Katherine Burlingham, the gifts.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's parents and sister, the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Ludlow and Miss Marilyn Ludlow and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foster, Nyssa; the Rev. and Mrs. S. Raynor Smith, Sr.; the Rev. and Mrs. Meredith Groves of Eugene; the Rev. and Mrs. Ross Knotts and family of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Mellis, Seattle; Mrs. Darrell Crossler of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hobson, Buhl; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beard, The Dalles; Mrs. Edna Ludlow, Hillsboro; and Miss Katherine Burlingham, Forest Grove.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg high school and from Willamette University at Salem and is studying for her master's degree in religious education at Pacific School of Religion. The bridegroom was graduated from Nampa high school and from Willamette University. Mr. Ludlow is a student in theology at Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, Calif. and is Minister of Youth at the First Methodist church of Oakland where Mrs. Ludlow is an assistant in youth work.

It's a Great Time to Buy a Buick!Switch the Pitch— And you Zing like a Bird

You can do it only in a Buick.

Only with Variable Pitch Dynaflo® can you switch the pitch like an airplane pilot does. Only with Dynaflo can you get a safety-surge of extra power that's smooth as a soaring bird.

Only the newest version of Dynaflo gives completely smooth, swift acceleration—even at the first gas-saving inch of pedal pressure.

Trying is believing—this new 1956 Dynaflo is years ahead of any other transmission. And it's just one of the great new features that you're missing if you're still driving an older car.

So why wait for your present car to become another year older—and considerably less valuable as trade-in—when you can take advantage of today's prices? And enjoy a car so excitingly new?

Just look at Buick's new styling—styling that will still look fresh for years to come.

Just try the newest Buick ride. It's the steadiest yet. Based on deep-coil springs, deep-oil-cushioned shock absorbers, torque-tube drive, and a long list of new developments not even Buick has ever had before.

And to say that this is a great time to buy a Buick is really an understatement. Come see the sensible, down-to-earth prices of Buick's tremendous range of models. Come hear the deal we can give you.

It's our deal—for your pleasure. Come draw up a chair—we're ready whenever you are.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.
