Bad Check Writer To Circuit Court

Edward Collins was returned to Nyssa from Coquille Wednesday by the sheriff's office to appear in the Nyssa justice court on charges of obtaining property under false pretenses. Collins allegedly wrote a $25 check on a Boise bank where he had no deposit, to pay for a $1 meal at a local cafe.

Collins was bound over to the circuit court by Justice Don M. Graham.

Nyssa Center To See Action In Elks Game

The SRV Elks All-Star team got a shot in the arm Monday with the arrival of four more players. Jerry Doman, of Ontario, a hard running back, Gene Bates, a fine Vale end and John Wilcox, the big tackle from Vale. Reporting with them was Darrel Swift, a crushing back from the last year A-2 Championship Vale Viking squad. The addition of this quartet will increase the line strength, and add a lot of speed and power to the backfield.

Gerry Leseburg of Nyssa is set to start center, of course if the team manages to score against the Central Oregon All-Stars, the pat kicking of Gene Bates will come in very handy. Head Coach Ward reports the squad is rounding into fine shape, and is showing a lot of spirit. Workouts have been cut to one a day, and they are being held under the lights on the Ontario gridiron.

Meanwhile, the Central Oregon All Star squad has gained the strength with the addition of Ted Henry and Dale Shumway, a couple of Prineville cowboy stars. Both boys reported to camp Monday after playing in the Ninth Annual Shrine All-Star game in Portland Saturday night.

As of now, the probable starting eleven from the Central Oregon team will consist of Leroy Jones at Center, Ted Henry and Bill St. Johns at Guards, Jack Griffin and Bob Davis at Tackles, Dick Woods and Earl Smith at the Ends. In the Backfield it looks like Dale Shumway, Dee Dickman, Shelby Blevins and Don McClure. The Central Oregon team will arrive in the SRV Friday. They will work out on the Vale Field Friday afternoon and then proceed to their headquarters in Ontario. Game time is 8:00 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 25 at the Ontario high school field.

Tickets are on sale in Nyssa at Wilson Brothers, Bracken's, Nyssa Pharmacy, Tobler's, Pacific Diamond HT Bag Co., Waggoner Motors, Taylor's Market, J. R. Simplot and Nyssa Motors.

Circuit Court Gets Four Men For Robbery

Four transients were charged with robbery Tuesday and bound over to the circuit court by Justice of Peace Don M. Graham. Rafael Y. Rodriguez was charged with attempted robbery on Jose De Leon Pequeno while armed with a dangerous weapon and the same man along with Paul G. Valdez was booked on charges of robbery while not being armed with a dangerous weapon. The two allegedly attacked Simon R. Ramirez along the railroad track and took a sum of money and personal belongings.

Wayne Johnson and Harold Lloyd were charged with assault and robbery while being armed with a dangerous weapon, described as a razor, and allegedly took a sum of money from Calisto C. Villareal at a parking lot on Main street.

All arrests were made Sunday by city police.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shaw and Larry are visiting this week with relatives in Washington. While they are away, Donald Shaw is a guest of his grandparents, the Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Wilson of Emmett.

Marvin Pett is reported recovering satisfactorily at home with a triple fracture of his right leg sustained last week when an elevator on a hay bailer broke and fell on him.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray O. Anderson of Burns returned to Nyssa last week to make their home. Anderson is employed by D. O. and W. A. Bybee whom he had worked for one year previously.

Prep Stars Clash Saturday

HEAD COACH Glenn Ward of Adrian (far left) and assistant coach Arnold Lewis of Vale give a pair of the SRV all-stars a tip on ball handling in preparation for the coming Elk's all-star football game to be held at the Ontario football field Aug. 25. Shown with the coaches are Norman Price (No. 6) of Adrian and Gerry Leseburg of Nyssa. The SRV grid stars will meet the Central Oregon All-stars in the Aug. 25 classic.

LDS All Stars Play Monday At Rodeo Field

The Nyssa LDS Stake All-Star team will play the Nyssa 2nd Ward Stake winners Monday night, Aug. 27 at the rodeo grounds.

The Nyssa 2nd Ward girls' team with seven wins and one loss during the season will play the Parma Ward, winner of the Stake girls' league in the opener at 7:15 p.m.

The all-star game will follow at 8:30 p.m. The all-star first, second and third teams were chosen by the managers of the seven wards. They have also chosen the team showing the best sportsmanship and the outstanding player of the league.

The all-star teams will be named in next week's paper.

The public is invited to the Monday games which will climax the successful softball season.

SPORTS AUTHORITIES . . .

The wonderful thing about being in the sporting goods and camping equipment business is that you are looked upon as being an expert in all phases of sporting and camping activities. . . . That's because a store like ours is a "clearing house" for, not only the "tallest stories ever told," but the priceless bits of information passed on to us by the experts that are our customers. What we learn from one expert we pass on to the next one, and gee, they think we're smart! If you want the last word and "authoritative" information, stop in to see us. . . . Unless your favorite sport is kangaroo racing, we've probably got a few scraps of information that might help you.
