

Marilyn Hopper and Don Newbill Wed In Candlelight Ceremony at Caldwell

Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbill

A candlelight ceremony in Boone Memorial Presbyterian church Saturday evening, Aug. 11 united in marriage Miss Marilyn Hopper and Don L. Newbill. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hopper of Caldwell, route 3 and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newbill, Nyssa, route 1.

Dr. Robert C. Shupe conducted the double ring rites in the presence of 225 guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white brocade nylon over taffeta, featuring a long waist and full, gathered skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held by a scalloped lace cap trimmed in seed pearls and sequins. Her bridal bouquet was of yellow roses and white carnations.

Miss Joan Hopper of San Diego, sister of the bride was maid of honor in a ballerina length gown of blue crystalline over taffeta. Bridesmaids, the Misses Shirley Carpenter of Salt Lake City and Janice Shepherd of Boise wore gowns of yellow crystalline over taffeta, styled identically to that of the maid of honor. They carried bouquets of white daisies.

Candlelighters were Sharon Hopper, sister of the bride and Lorraine Maxwell. John H. Bangs of Boise was best man and ushers were Kenneth, Edwin and Mark Hopper, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Jane Thomason Sower was soloist and Richard Skyrms was organist.

Of Interest to The Fair Sex

By IONA FLINDERS

Its really been interesting a-

round here lately. Everyone getting ready for

"back to school." We have especially enjoyed helping the sweet young teen agers and coeds.

It was around 25 or 30 years ago when we were anxiously preparing for the big thrill of entering high school. We had to walk a long mile to catch the clanking, rattling, rocking Bamberger train,

(hard wooden seats), then ride some 18 miles, more or less, to dear old Davis high.

That was about the time Pres.

Coolidge was in the white house, and Al Capone just starting his career of crime. Prohibition and prosperity reigned supreme and

Ford roadsters were selling for $260.00. (Doesn't that make us sound ancient?)

All the young flappers were wearing middy blouses with short (short) pleated skirts. Nearly every well dressed flapper had an ensemble in her wardrobe which consisted of a short sheath dress which wasn't form fitting like they are today, in fact bust and waistline were bypassed and all the interest was centered on the hip line. A contrasting or matching coat, straight and short completed the ensemble. For dress and dancing we had spike heeled pumps, oxfords or flats for school.

We wore our hair Dutch cut or curled blown boy-style, with "spit" curls framing the face.

We were dancing the "Charleston" and the "Flea Hop" and couldn't be bothered with long skirts or complicated hair do's.

Sweaters? Sure we had them, but they were worn when extra warmth was needed and were not the glamorous, colorful Kan-dels that we have today.

We learned to dance and exercise in gym, draped in white middys and full black bloomers—wow!

You can get your neat and comfortable gym shorts and blouses here, all sizes.

And for our big surprise for bargain hunters this week we have marked our ladies' winter coats (including the new ones just in) down to the low price of $29.95. These are regular $39.95 and $49.95 coats and you can lay them away if you like, sizes from 8 to 18. Take time too, to see our large selection of blouses, skirts and dresses that are suitable for school or dressy occasions.

Bye now and may the school bells mean a happy and wonderful year for you with good grades —good times and good citizenship.
