Of Interest to The Fair Sex

By IONA FLINDERS

We had an amusing experience the other day. A lady said to us, while trying on a dress, "My husband has very definite tastes. He can't stand me in anything over $10."

There's plenty of excitement around here lately, getting everything in readiness for the big anniversary sale. 45 years! We'll bet Ernie and Alice could relate many interesting experiences about those 45 years of selling.

There probably aren't many other places of business still flourishing that were operating then, except Wilson Bros.

Of course, we have to hand it to the Wilsons for the many bargains they're offering to their many friends. Can you imagine getting a "Hardy Howard" or "Harold" wool plaid jacket for only $8.88? Even we can't afford to pass that one up!

The skirts on sale are slender stalks of fashion which you'll see dotting the fashion scene everywhere. They are nicely tailored in all the lush matched tones of autumn and many are washable. Whether learning or earning... they're a bargain for you. (Reg. $4.45 to $8.95.)

The sweaters are in popular cardigan or pullover styles and in wool or orlon. We have all shades to start with, but hurry... hurry for these!

There will also be other good buys too numerous to mention.

Learn to think for yourselves; don't be a mere echo of the thoughts of someone else. Come up and pick out the clothes that fit your personality (and your pocketbook).
