Of Interest to The Fair Sex

By IONA FLINDERS

It surely is quiet and lonely around our place since our precious little sweetheart and her adorable baby sister moved to Roseburg. Never a dull moment with those two little rays of sunshine around.

But we don't have time to mope too much nor develop and gastric ulcers (something you get from mountain climbing over molehills). And we love to look forward to the letters from them and from our friends.

Which reminds us we received a letter from Los Angeles a short time ago and were told that our column was read and enjoyed by friends there. We also heard likewise from Provo and from Denver. So we thought it would be interesting to know just who does read our column.

Bob cooperated with us and we would like you to send us the part that says "Wilson's Style Shop" along with your name and address. We will send a nice little gift to the one farthest away and halfway in between, and also to the first one we receive. To you who live closer we will draw a lucky 1st and 2nd and also give them prizes. So let me hear from all of you, please.

When you are in town come up and see the new poplin car coats, also other jackets of nylon fleece, wool and corduroy. We unpacked two dozen dresses this morning for the $6.95 rack. These are cute! For cool nights we have outing flannel gowns and pajamas at $2.98, also rayons, nylons and knits.

OK — now write to me — Rt. 2, Nyssa, we'll let you know the results.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Happy Swap

More and more farmers—who badly need hired help sometimes, but can't afford a full-time hand—are making deals with young town workers and the employers they work for.

For instance, young Hap Hooper now lives rent-free on Easy Roberts' farm. In return he works about 100 days a year for Easy—for a farmhand's pay.

The rest of the year Hap works for his "regular" boss... Buzz Ellis, the electrician. Buzz just speeds up his business when Hap's on hand—slows it down when he isn't—and, like Easy, pockets healthy savings in wages.

From where I sit, it's great how people with different backgrounds—and different viewpoints—can co-operate. How about more of us trying that? I live in a town—maybe you're a farmer. I'm partial to a good glass of beer—you may prefer coffee or milk. But we can make things pleasant by ignoring differences and giving each other a "hand."
