

Grange Meeting Thursday Night

At the Thursday evening meeting of the Oregon Trail Grange Robert Holmes, newly elected master, presided and appointed committees. The committees are George Cleaver, Frank Sherwood, LeRoy Herrman, Agriculture; Frank Parr, O. E. Cheldelin and Garrett Stam, legislative and Mrs. Orma Goodell, publicity.

George Cleaver and Frank Sherwood discussed the farming situation. Mr. Sherwood told of feeding feathers to stock for high protein content. There are several processing plants in the Middle West who process the feathers for stock consumption. Farm subsidy was also discussed.

LeRoy Herrman reviewed an article he had read about there being very little change in the farm program for the coming year.

Robert Holmes gave a report on the beet meeting which he attended in Boise last week.

LeRoy Pulliam told of first and second class land being sold for housing projects. He also discussed the crowded situation at the State Grange, poor eating and sleeping facilities for 4-H and FFA. Word was sent to Pomona and State Granges to use their influences to help get a new building.

A response on the Red Cross was given by Frank Parr and the Grange bought a $5 tuberculosis and health bond.

Frank Sherwood reported that the blood bank will be here Jan. 4 and ask for donors.

It was announced by Mrs. Orma Goodell that HEC will hold a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Garrett Stam Dec. 18 at 1 p.m. There will be a gift exchange.

The Grange will hold a turkey dinner Dec. 20. All Grange members and their families and guests are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Price were Grange guests.
