Bulldogs Tackle Payette, Vale This Weekend

The SRV basketball title chase starts this weekend with the Nyssa Bulldogs tackling Payette at the Idaho city Friday night and returning to Nyssa Saturday night to meet Vale on the local floor.

The Nyssa quintet didn't fare too well in the holiday tourney played at Vale, losing their first game to Parma 49-33 and being edged out by Vale 41-38 in the consolation round.

Coach Stan Olson wasn't too depressed, however. Unlike most of the schools he gave his players time off during the holidays. They were rusty at Vale but Coach Olson figures in the long run the team will be better for the layoff—especially as none of the contests were "counting" games.

Friday at Payette and Saturday here, Olson expects to start five men from the following: Dennis Forbes and Larry Schenk, forwards, Gale Coleman at either guard or center, John Messick guard Jim Bergam, center and Frank Morris, guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hartley and family left Saturday for a two week's trip to California where they will visit Vernon Chadwick and John Savage at Covina and Miss Jo Ann Hartley in Beverly Hills and attend the Rose Bowl game and parade.

Michael Rebb of Sunset Valley spent several days last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hudd Robb.

Merle Thomson and Mrs. Lyon were hostesses. The dinner was pot luck with Mrs. Nielsen cooking the turkey. There were seven present members and six children.

The club had treats for the children and each mother brought a gift for her child.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Manser and family of Portland spent Saturday at the Charles Daudt home.

Those spending Christmas day at the Ed Meroney home were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Meroney and family of Caldwell, Lela and Si Lett and Tommy Neilson.

Christmas eve visitors at the Edward Neilson home were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Neilson and family of Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Elver Nielson of Sunset Valley and Lois Kersey and children.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Chesney and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daudt and family were Christmas day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kohl and family in Nyssa.

Ed Meroney has been spending the past week at home and will return to his work next week at Orofino, Ida.

Visitors at the R. H. Johnson home over the Christmas holidays were their daughter Rita Bailey and daughter of Portland and their son Frank Johnson of Pendleton.

Wilbur Manser of Payette was a visitor Saturday at the Charles Daudt home.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Field are the parents of a baby girl. They are staying at the home of Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Field near Fruitland.

Clifton Nielsen of Quincy, Wash., visited Sunday at the Edward Nielsen home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Lyon attended the Christmas dinner given by the Dessert Seed company at Brownie's Cafe in Nyssa Saturday evening.

A. P. Chesney has been ill for the past week.

Christmas dinner guests at the Bruce Lyon home were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lyon, Minnie Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Emery and girls, all of Emmett and Mr. and Mrs. John Makinson and family of Caldwell.

Marvin and Georgia Dean Hagler spent Sunday and Monday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Chesney.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daudt and daughters spent Christmas eve with Mrs. Paul Daudt and Ray of Payette.
