Miss Nadine Seward - Hugh E. Pierce United in Evening Ceremony Here

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Pierce

Miss Nadine Seward of Parma and Hugh E. Pierce of Nyssa were united in marriage in an evening candlelight ceremony Dec. 28 at the Church of the Nazarene here.

The single ring ceremony was performed in the presence of 300 guests by the Rev. Robert O. Jackson and Dr. John E. Riley, president of Northwest Nazarene college, Nampa.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Dwight F. Seward of Parma and Mrs. Mary E. Pierce of Nyssa.

The church was decorated with four gold gilded fir trees and candelabra with gold candles and beauty baskets of rose fuji mums with gold sprays of fir branches accented with large white bows. Each pew was marked with a gold candle and rose bow.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a ballerina length gown of white nylon tulle and scalloped French Chantilly lace over bridal satin. The lace was caught up with a large rustle bow in back revealing rows of dainty tulle ruffles. The lace covered bodice featured a scalloped neckline and long pointee sleeves. Her veil of French illusion was held by a satin Juliet cap featuring velvet, sequin and seed pearl trim. She carried a white orchid and pink sweetheart rosebuds on a white satin and lace covered Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Noel Riley of Nampa and Miss Nelda Seward, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They were identically dressed in gowns of rose antique satin, featuring three-quarter length lace redingotes. They carried white gardenias with rose carnations and gold streamers on white satin muffs.

Candlelighters were Shirley Seward, sister of the bride, attired in a rose taffeta empire line dress featuring a bouffant skirt and a rose carnation wristlet and Gordon Seward, cousin of the bride.

Soloists were Miss Jen Shoemaker and Bob Farris accompanied by William T. Armstrong, organist. Jack Winchell, Nyssa, was best man and Glen Marcum, Nyssa, groom's man. Ushers were Robert Jackson, Jr. and A. J. Kellogg of Nampa.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Seward chose a open blue afternoon dress with winter white and black accessories and Mrs. Pierce wore a steel gray suit with rose and black accessories. Both wore gardenia and carnation corsages.

A reception in the little theater of the high school honored the couple following the ceremony.

Mrs. Robert O. Jackson was in charge of the reception, assisted by Mrs. John E. Riley, Nampa and Miss Roxie Hull, Ontario, cutting and Mrs. William Jackson, Nampa, pouring coffee. Miss Lynn Riley poured punch assisted by Mrs. Leroy Seward, Mrs. Don Seward, Mrs. Robert Martin and Miss Janet Medlock.

The reception music was by Rosemary Ammon and in charge of gifts were the Misses LaDonna Nafziger and Joanne Horton. Gail Riley had charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Pierce chose a gray sheath dress with aqua accessories for her going-away ensemble. Following a wedding trip to McCall, they are making their home at 412 Dewey Ave., Nampa.

Mr. Pierce is a graduate of Nyssa high school and Mrs. Pierce attended Parma and Nampa high schools. Both are now students at Northwest Nazarene College, Nampa.
