

Apple ValleyMrs. Dwight Seward
Phone 2-2731PEA MEETING

The Apple Valley teachers were hosts to about 30 fellow teachers of the Parma education association last Wednesday afternoon at their regular monthly meeting. The PEA is a branch of the state IEA and all schools in the district were represented. The meeting was held in the hot lunch room of the Apple Valley school and Mrs. Mary Thompson of Roswell presided during the business session. A round table discussion of the teacher's relation to the community was presented by four business men of Parma, James Watson, Francis McCormick, Preston Seely and George Sweet. Others participated from the group in a general forum making it a profitable time for all.

APPLE VALLEY PTA

PTA in the Apple Valley school Thursday evening featuring "Men's Night" was an interesting meeting. The business was conducted by the husbands of the lady officers. Forrest Reed presided; David Bay read the secretary's minutes and the treasurer's report was given by Clayton Butcher.

The association voted to approve a recommendation of the executive board to purchase a utility drill which will be made into a heavy duty mixer for the hot lunch room.

The program consisted of a bass clarinet solo by Marvin Johanson, a trumpet solo by Jerry Pinkston, and a vocal solo by Frank Huett panted by Clayton Butcher and Everett Watkins. Miss Delores Welliver accompanied each of the soloists.

Mr. Reed introduced the speaker, a former classmate, Mark Maxwell, vice president of the correction board at the Idaho State Penitentiary. He stated some causes of juvenile delinquency and told of the work the state is doing for correction. An animated question session followed his talk.

Refreshments were served by the men and furnished by the 3rd grade room mothers. Mrs. Hazel Ferguson's 1st grade received the prize for the room count for November.

A cooked food sale sponsored by the girls of FHA will be held at Peckham's Furniture store in Parma, Feb. 9.

Mrs. Fred Henkel returned home recently from a trip to Brighton, Colo. where she visited her father, John Wederspoon and her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Mitchell.

Gloria Erwin was an overnight guest Wednesday of Patty Collins. Mrs. Dan Smith was an overnight guest Wednesday of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Buettgenbach in Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Maxwell of Boise were dinner guests at the Forrest Reed home Thursday evening prior to attending the PTA where Mr. Maxwell was guest speaker.

Delmar Smith arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Gladys Smith Sunday from the Lincoln.
