Waltonians Meet Here on Monday

An Izaak Walton League meeting is scheduled for 8 o'clock Monday evening at Brownie's Cafe in Nyssa to discuss plans to raise funds for work on a road from Owyhee dam to Gordon Gulch, Ken Renstrom has announced. Everyone interested, whether members of the league or not, are invited to attend.

At a regular meeting in Ontario Monday of this week, Waltonians made final plans to sponsor a fund drive through organizations for the project.

Pat Barclay Honored At "Smarty Party"

Freshman coeds who received B averages or higher in their grades for fall term in the U. of O. were the guests of Motar Board, senior women's honorary, at the annual Smarty Party held Wednesday, Jan. 23.

Among the "smarties" so honored was Patricia J. Barclay, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barclay, 805 Reece Ave., Nyssa.

Two Treated Sunday Following Car Wreck

Douglas Minum, 20, Parma route 3, and Joe Dolence were treated early Sunday morning at the Nyssa hospital for lacerations and other minor injuries suffered in a car wreck north of the Parma-Nyssa junction on the Idaho side.

According to Idaho officers, the car driven by Minum collided with another vehicle driven by Harley E. Sager as it was being backed from a driveway onto the highway.

Cub Scout Workshop Saturday at Ontario

A Cub Scout workshop for Malheur and Snake River districts has been announced for Saturday, Feb. 2, at Ontario high school cafeteria, by W. L. McPartland leadership and training chairman for the Ore-Ida Council.

The workshop is scheduled from 12:30 to 5:30 p. m. and is to be divided into 40 minute periods in each area plaster crafts, sawdust mache, woodwork, paper foldings and basketry.

Any person interested may attend. A one dollar fee for supplies will be charged.

Four Straight! Nyssa Quintet In Title Fight

The Nyssa Bulldogs, firmly entrenched in third place in the SRV league on the strength of four consecutive wins, head into the home stretch of league play this weekend with a tough game slated this Friday against Vale (5-2) to be played in Vale and a Saturday contest on the local court against Meridian (1-7).

Ontario still leads the pack with but one defeat. The Bulldogs tangle with the frontrunners here February 8.

Friday night, Nyssa had its hands full with the cellar-dwelling Meridian quintet, coming out on top on the basis of superior work on the free-throw line. The Bulldogs had a mighty uncomfortable evening all the way. They led at the half 21-16 and 29-28 at the end of the third period. Meridian finally captured the lead with less than two minutes to play, 36-35.

Larry Schenk put the Nyssa team ahead with a rebound. He was also high point man in the game, making 18 counters.

The Nyssa frosh-sophs dumped Meridian 47 to 36 in a prelim.

Saturday night the Bulldogs avenged an earlier defeat by Payette by trouncing the Idaho team 41 to 27.

A big crowd braved sub zero weather to watch a red hot ball club. Outstanding was the work of the Bulldogs in ballhawking, especially off the boards. If the Pirates missed their first fling at the basket it was usually their last. The Nyssa team, especially Lewis, was outstanding on controlling rebounds. Lewis arched some beauties from outside the key to total 15 points. Schenk was again deadly from the corners, aided by excellent cooperation from his teammates.

The Bullpups won the opener from Payette JV's 43-26.

If the Nyssa team subdues Vale Friday and takes Meridian Saturday the final standing will remain in doubt. Nyssa must beat Ontario and pray that someone else does the same to get into title contention.

Nine Students To Attend Press Clinic At Seattle

Nine students from Nyssa will travel to Seattle February 21 to attend the All-Coast Press Clinic where students from eight western states will attend to gain ideas for a better school paper.

The group from Nyssa, consisting of Dorothy Holcomb, Dirk Rinehart, Jerry Lankford, Mardelle Thompson, Jim McWilliams, Glenn Walker, Annabel Arai, Kathy Carr and Elaine Crisp, will join about 2000 other delegates on the University of Washington campus. The Nyssa group will join a group of Caldwell, Ida., aspiring journalists and the two groups will make the trip cooperatively by chartered bus. Chaperones for the trip are Clyde Swisher and Mrs. Florence Schaertl, Caldwell journalism instructor.

More than eighty speakers will appear on the press clinic program. Principal speaker is William Randolph Hearst, Jr., president of Hearst Publications, and the luncheon address will be given by novelist Kenneth Dodson who is remembered for his book and recent movie, "Away All Boats."

Monday evening dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kranz in Ontario were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Bowns.

Bulldogs Whip Payette in SRV Tilt

NYSSA BULLDOG rooters, just a small section of whom can be seen in the above photo really had a lot to yell about Saturday night when the locals dumped Payette 41 to 27 in a game in which the Bulldogs were superior in every department. The win, their fourth straight, boosted the Bulldogs into third place behind Ontario and Vale. The Nyssamen can climb into second place tie if they dispose of Vale Friday night in a game to be played at the county seat. The team returns here Saturday to meet Parma.—Journal photo.

Primary Girls Honor Fathers At Snow Frolic

The Homebuilders of the Nyssa LDS stake primary held their annual "Daddy Date" at the Nyssa stake house Friday evening.

The girls of the Lark, Seagull and Bluebird classes escorted their fathers to the event as their dates.

Snowball Frolic, the theme of the affair, was carried out in invitations made by the girls, the favors and decorations. Large snowmen were placed on the stage and about the hall.

Films were shown, followed by games, dancing and refreshments served by the leaders of the girls from each ward including Owyhee, Parma, Ontario, Vale and Nyssa.

Mrs. John Wagstaff of Parma was chairman of the event with the Mmes. Tren Jones, J. Elwood Flinders and Vern Butler assisting.

Check Writer In Justice Court

Jim Taylor was bound over to the grand jury Monday by Justice of Peace Don M. Graham on a charge of forgery and another for "knowlingly uttering and publishing a forged bank check." Bail on each count was set at $1000, which Taylor was unable to furnish and he is being held in the county jail at Vale.

According to Justice Graham, Taylor admitted his true name is Duane C. Smith and that he admitted writing a check for $40 and cashing it at an Ontario business firm on Dec. 18.

Action Underway For Owyhee Lake Chamber Told

Word has been received from Congressman Al Ullman that a study is underway to determine what agencies, both federal and state, might join in development of Lake Owyhee recreational area, Tom Jones told members of the Nyssa Chamber of Commerce Wednesday. Jones reported that Gov. Robert Holmes is working with the congressman in conducting the survey.

Ken Renstrom reported that numerous petitions are in the hands of interested persons throughout eastern Oregon as far west as Burns and in southwestern Idaho to ask the Oregon highway department to include the area in its park program.

A meeting with state highway officials is scheduled within a short time as the result of arrangements made by Marshall Dana, Portland, according to Harold Henigson, who asserted the petitions will be effective in gaining support of the state highway department.

The chamber voted opposition to proposed congressional legislation that would limit competitive pricing of certain products and in turn limit their production.

President Wilton Jackson announced that a 10-minute film on salesmanship will be included in next week's program.

Fourth Graders Organize Class Club

The members of Mrs. Nelda Schenk's fourth grade room organized a class club Wednesday afternoon last week.

Officers elected were Sharon Pulliam, president, and Marlowe Moncur, secretary. The improving of playground and classroom habits were discussed during the business meeting and committees were chosen.
