

MIA Girls Honor Guests At Annual Gold And Green Ball Saturday

The Misses Sally Kesler, Jeanine Drown and Nancy Skeen were honor girls at the LDS second ward MIA Gold and Green ball held Saturday evening at the Nyssa stake house.

"Singing in the Rain," was the theme of the LDS second ward MIA annual Gold and Green ball Saturday evening at the Nyssa stake house.

The dance honored Sally Kesler, Jeanine Drown and Nancy Skeen, who fulfilled the requirements making them eligible to be honored.

Decorations featured a large umbrella centering the dance floor, lawn swings, a garden and blue and gray clouds, depicting clear and cloudy skies.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mitchell sang the theme song, and "Moonlight Rhapsody," was danced by Kathy Carr, Elaine Glover, June Feik, Virginia Sanders, Joan Baker, Barbara Beck, Celia Bybee, Linda Bowns, Tom Lewis, Bruce Fife, Joe Sanders and Gerald Talbot. An all boy dance entitled, "Side-walks of Nyssa," was presented by Dahl Olson, Bruce Fife, Monty Burbank, Gerald Talbot, Tom Lewis, Joe Sanders, Ralph Poulson and Douglas Lewis.

Bishop Lloyd Lewis introduced the honor girls and their fathers and presented each girl with a gift.

Mrs. Owen Froerer was in charge of the refreshment table which was centered under an umbrella. Dance directors are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cottrell. The MIA officers and teachers were in charge of the event with the honor girls and MIA directors and members assisting with the decorations Saturday.
