We Hope It's Not Contagious

Now that Postmaster General Summerfield "has proved something" by eliminating all mail deliveries last Saturday, we hope the U. S. Department of the Interior doesn't get some ideas and turn off all irrigation water on reclamation projects if it ever feels more funds are needed.

Let the Bible Speak

Little has been said about the new prophet but the question has been asked what do you (I) think about the new prophet?

What I think about him may be right or wrong. What I think is not what counts.

So let the Bible speak: that is what counts.

In I John 4:1, He tells us not to believe every spirit to see if they are of God for some are false prophets.

Now let us examine Mr. Funk's prophecy with God's word.

Quote, "The world (age) is 1959," unquote.

Matt. 24:36, Jesus says no man knoweth when the end of time cometh.

In verses 37-39 this Christian generation is likened to the generation of the patriarchs before the flood. No one knew when the flood was coming until it came, so also will be like the coming of the Son of Man or the end of the world.

There have been many others who have set a time for the end of time to come but they have all failed.

If Mr. Funk is right then we would not have to watch until '59 but according to Matt. 24: 43-44 we should be ready and watching at all times.

When the Son of Man comes we will all know for the brightness of Christ will shine from the East to the West. So watch and be ready every hour.

Please read Matt., chap. 24; Mark, chap. 13; Luke, chap. 21; I Thes. 4:1-18; I Thes. 5:1-6. (Paid Adv.)

Set Annual Fellowship Day

The annual United Church Women's May Fellowship Day is May 3 at the Methodist Church and is under the chairmanship of Mrs. E. A. Lining.

Members of the committee are Mrs. Bill Fitzsimmons, Nazarene; Mrs. Maylin Maxfield, Episcopal; Mrs. Clyde Snider, Methodist and Mrs. Lewis Riggs, LDS. The Christian and Adrian Presbyterian churches will also have representatives on the committee.

A luncheon will be served at 12:45 by the Methodist women, followed by the fellowship and program, "Free Schools in a Free America." The program will emphasize problems of the local migrant workers.

and bless His name."—Psalm 100: 2-4.

You are always welcome at the friendly Church of the Nazarene, Nyssa's singing church.

10:45 a.m.—Easter program by the Sunday school children, Mrs. Dwight Seward in charge.

7 p.m.—Group services for all ages.

7:45 p.m.—The Sunday evening services will be a program presented by the young people, with Mrs. Jackson in charge. There will be readings, special music and two chalk drawings.

Stranger In The County

By Bill Campbell

Probably this is the wrong place to get a little sentimental, but darn it, when someone does something for one (note the grammar) I think it only fair that I give due credit to the person involved. As you know, we are moving, we hope, this weekend. Regardless of the fact that the present building leaves much to be desired, it has been "home" to me for almost a year and a half. During this time I have met my neighbors on either side of the building, such as Lyle Miner the barber and Nick and Bertha Rudelick who run a pop stand on the other side of the Journal.

The idea of leaving the south side depressed me no end—you know leaving such neighbors as the Rudelicks. But here's where the sentiment comes in.

Duane had his choice of two or three spots. But where are we moving?

Smack dab next to the Ace Pastime!

The other day I dropped into the Olympic and heard the darndest noises. Helmer Ostrom, one of the wheels at the Nyssa Lumber was trying to say, in Swedish, Seven thousand, seven hundred and seventy-seven sick seamen.

Can any of you Swedes say it? Marion, draw two, please.

For sake's alive! what's with this rumor that the postmaster's dog bit a postman!

Kiss of death department: See where Rep. Zlenko, democrat, (ug), New York, has proposed federal income tax cuts for older persons by allowing "depletion of human resources" after age 44.

DammitoHELL. I ain't THAT depleted!

Better watch my language.

There's a black-haired beauty—Janie Walker, age 15, who I understand sometimes reads this bunch of junk. Janie! Stuck to Sir Walter Scott, not Campbell's rot. Are you as cute as your picture?

Laugh of the week: See where they are suing Bill Lambert, Oregonian reporter, for $900,000! I worked with Bill on the paper in Oregon City and unless he's changed a lot, it would be much more sensible to sue him for $9.

What adds to the intrigue is the fact that the Journal's reporter, Bob Sever, also worked at the Enterprise-Courier in Oregon City while Bill and yours truly were there. Now the two Portland reporters are on the opposite side of the fence.

But we have in common. All three of us learned the fundamentals of journalism under the supervision of Walter W. R. May, one of the REAL newspapermen in this state.

I don't know whether it was "white" mule or not, but an ornery critter ruined a finger of Arthur Arnold, an employee of Vaughn Stringer when he chomped down on Arnold's middle appendage on his right hand and took it off whistle-clean. One thing is certain, it was bad deal for both the mule and Arthur.

Attends Utah LDS Conference

Mrs. Elwood Flinders, Nyssa LDS stake primary president, attended the recent two-day conference of the LDS primary association in Salt Lake City.

Also attending the conference from the Nyssa stake board were Mrs. Dean Blaylock and Mrs. Lee Stoker, Nyssa; Mrs. John Wagstaff, Parma; Mrs. Garlan Christensen, Mrs. Clyde Fogg and Mrs. Jess Baker, Ontario; Mrs. Adolph Ussing and Mrs. Maxine Huffaker, Vale. They were identified at the meeting by White Satin sugar badges.

Mrs. Flinders also attended a dinner at the Starlight Gardens for primary presidents and was awarded the Children's Friend cup, for the sixth consecutive year, on behalf of the six wards in the Nyssa stake.

Accompanying her to Utah were her daughter, Gail and son, Gerald and Roger Cole of Payette. They visited in Hooper, Ogden and Peterson and returned home last week.

Walt Wills returned to Nyssa Tuesday after spending the winter in Quartzsite, Ariz.

of My Maryland.

Oh, Baby Doll, Oh Baby Doll, was he short or was he tall. . . . Oh, baby doll, oh Baby Doll, we'll just blame it all on spring.

Oh, baby doll, oh Baby Doll, don't like that "foul-derall." (I can't spell it, I also can't find it in the dictionary!)

The fact that I'm speaking of Thelma Mullins is no concern of yours.

Golly! That Eagles addition is a thing of beauty and will be a joy to a lot of folks. It's an amazing accomplishment for a community of this, or any size. See you boys and girls Saturday night at the grand opening. Please bring your own wives as I'll be taking pictures!

Speaking of pictures, I snapped those of the Eagle officers which appear on pages 12 and 13 of this edition. AND I MADE A HORRIBLE MISTAKE! I showed some of them to the subjects and was whipsawed from pillar to post.

Honest, kids, you just aren't high school seniors anymore!

Speaking of the pictures, at the time same were taken Carl Barclay, Shorty Brandt and Duane Holcomb through no fault of their own were not able to be present. I'll take 'em and save for a special occasion.

And there's a special occasion coming up Sunday.

See you in church. (Yes, me!)

Bye now, Bill.

Warning to All!

On April 1, 1957, I unsealed the Bible scriptures, something that no man has ever done. The end of the world (age) is in 1959. If that is not true, then the Bible is false. I would like to know what other year it could be than '59.

Parma Area Youth On LDS Mission

Russell Louis Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Phillips, route 1, Parma, has been called to serve a full-time mission for the LDS church. He has been assigned to the north central states mission with headquarters at Minneapolis, Minn.

Elder Phillips reported for active service at the mission home in Salt Lake City Wednesday. A farewell testimonial was given at the Parma ward Sunday evening to the Snake River Valley Mariners club. Forty-nine adults and children attended the last 20-40 group meeting April 5, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Athol Sayre were hosts.

The choir of the church presented the Easter cantata, "Because I Live," on Palm Sunday at the 11 o'clock service.

Easter Sunday, again we shall observe "One Great Hour of Sharing." Our contributions to this fund will help buy needed medicine, clothing and food for those people throughout the world who are in need.

Also Easter Sunday morning there will be reception of new members and baptismal service.

The dates for the Payette Lakes conference this year are June 24-29.

Seabeck conference will be July 15-22. Please ask Rev. Moore for registration card if you are planning to attend.

Farewell Fetes Honor Nyssans

A farewell party Thursday evening and testimonial Sunday at the LDS stake house honored Bob Esplin and Ivan Flake, who left this week on mission.

The party was under the direction of the second ward Elder's quorum and Mutual Improvement association. Brig Olsen was master of ceremonies for the program.

Neva and Lina Flake presented a vocal duet and Reed Patterson gave a record impersonation. Elder Graham played a piano selection, Julie Palmer gave a reading and Amy Lewis played a violin solo. A vocal trio was presented by Tarma, Cleo and Joy Esplin.

Nancy Skeen and Mrs. Margaret Brown presented vocal solos and Mrs. Elwood Flinders gave a reading followed by a saxophone solo by Jerry Williams. Dancing concluded the evening's activities.

The boys are both graduates of Nyssa high school with the class of 1955 and have been attending Brigham Young university, Provo, Utah. Parents of the boys are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Esplin and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Flake.

They entered the mission home Wednesday where they will be a week before entering their mission fields. Flake is assigned to the Canadian mission and Esplin, the Great Lakes mission.

WHY DID JESUS DIE?

For more than 1900 years the eyes of the Christian world have been focused on the cross of Christ. What was the purpose of that cross? Why did Jesus die?

Men have given many answers to those questions. But what did Christ and His apostles have to say about the purpose of His death? Just listen:

"Christ died for our sins." "God commendeth His love toward us in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." "Christ suffered for our sins, the just for the unjust."

"God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them." "Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us."

In other words, when Jesus died on the cross He was suffering the punishment and removing the guilt of all the sins of all the world. He died as a substitute—for us.

Whether you realize it or not, it was for you that Christ died. You were "reconciled to God by the death of His Son." Salvation is now yours—full, free, and final. "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."—That is why Jesus died!
