Apple Valley

Mrs. Dwight Seward
Phone 2-2731

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimdars visited last week with their daughter, Mrs. Duke Ross and family in Portland where Mr. Ross is in the hospital. The Rosses were here last winter while he recuperated from a leg injury until he was able to return to his timber work, where he again broke his leg about a month ago. Mr. Ross also underwent an operation.

Visitors at the Carey Fox home last Wednesday were his brother, G. E. Fox of Genesee, Ida., and his daughter and three children of Kellogg, Ida. The group were dinner guests at the W. A. Fox home in Nyssa Thursday evening.

Mrs. Waldo Smalley enjoyed her birthday Friday morning when co-workers in the hot lunch project, Mrs. Oscar Samuels and Mrs. Wilbur Booth went to her home before school and presented her with a cake. Later 10 neighbor ladies surprised her when they dropped in for a coffee hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Goddard and Cindy who recently moved to Moses Lake, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orley Smith. They returned Sunday taking a trailer load of their furniture. Bernard has steady employment as an electronics inspector for Boeing Aircraft Co.

Mrs. Alberta Morrow and Bob Carrothers of Cottonwood visited last week at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. Clayton Butcher and family. Wednesday evening Mrs. Butcher's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Padgett and family of Boise were dinner guests at the Butcher home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Pierce of Nampa came Thursday evening to help her father, Dwight Seward, celebrate his birthday. Callers were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wild and Mrs. Ed Wild of Nyssa.

Jack Reed and son, Robert camped and fished Friday night at Murray, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fritts reported a nice catch of fish near Unity, Ore. Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Smalley and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smalley of Ontario were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Grimes in Caldwell Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Osborne and family of Payette and Mrs. Roy Henkel were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cearley and Joyce Sunday.

The large John Deere tractor of Angelo Marostica caught fire at his farm Sunday morning causing extensive damage to the tire and wiring before the fire department from Parma could extinguish the flame.

Four little girls, Marilu Wilson, Brenda Bay, Marilyn Mann and Marie Hill graduated from the kindergarten of Mrs. Lloyd Lewis Tuesday.

WCSA will meet Wednesday, June 5, at the church basement.

Stranger In The County

By Bill Campbell

I've got to admit it—the menus at Brownie's Cafe are intriguing. Two weeks ago they featured "salam loaf" and last Friday came up with "cain chowder."

Bill probably so named the soup because he had lost the clam! Speaking of local "eateries," it isn't true that Brownie—he of the B and E—is switching to wood forks.

There's nothing for me to do but sit down and bawl . . . seems we've lost our "baby doll." Thelma's heading for California—the happy hunting ground for attractive SINGLE girls.

War department: How many of you husbands have relaxed after a hard day, settled down in an easy chair either to read or watch TV—lit up a cigarette or a cigar—only to have the dish-doin' wife breeze through the living room and pick up every darn ash tray in the place! There's no "butts" about it men—we've simply got to organize a "just leave one around club."

Ron Schoen ran an ad this week regarding June brides. That was fine but I balked when he also wanted to include a line reading "Prepare Now for Father's Day!"

Want to see something kinda pretty? Mrs. S. P. Bybee has 200 varieties of iris in full bloom. Look, don't touch . . . though I'd like a bouquet. Mmm!

Santa Claus dropped around Tuesday night! When I left the car the front seat was as empty as a disk jockey's ad libs. When I returned later in the evening—guess WHAT! There, as big as life and twice as beautiful was a big sack of Simplot's number 1, top quality, US inspected, factory packed, hand picked SPUDS!

Elmer, you sly dog, you! And they sometimes say it doesn't pay to advertise!

Two things jolted me on my trip—both of which could be remedied with the application of a little sandblasting. The capitol building at Boise—which all tourists see as they approach the town from the east looks like a grey blob of stone. It has only one advantage. The street leading to the building won't be overcrowded with throngs heading for the attractive (?) edifice.

The other sad-sack public building is the grim federal building at Sault Ste. Marie. This stone structure is the control point for the locks. While old it is architecturally sound but like the Boise capitol could use a facelift, especially in that the locks are the focal point of thousands upon thousands of visitors who tour Michigan every summer.

The locks have to be seen to be appreciated. The Great Lakes ships—many between 600 and 700 feet in length pass through the intricate waterways, one after another, around the clock. While it takes but 15 minutes to put a ship through the locks—there are four, I believe—there is usually a "waiting list" of the lake giants at either end of the operation.

Speaking of waiting lists: Max is waiting for this copy so I'd better knock it off. But not until I ponder the question which is rather intriguing.

Who was the local businessman who has available both fishing gear and licenses that was burning same all day Saturday at Owyhee? Tsk. Tsk!

But don't YOU be a bum and spend your money with our competitors!

Oh, say! We hope to have our Spanish column cooking in the near future so you amigos be patient.

Buenos Dias! —Bill.

Churches Plan Bible Schools For Children

Several Nyssa churches have announced plans for vacation Bible schools during the next few weeks.

St. Hubert's Catholic church opened their two week's religious vacation school Monday with instruction for children from the first grade through the eighth. Classes are held in the Nyssa grade school under the direction of two Franciscan Sisters from Baker.

Faith Lutheran church Bible school for children from three years to sixth grade will start June 3 and continue 10 days, from 8:45 to 11 a. m. Theme for the school is "Our Beautiful Saviour". All interested children of these ages are invited to attend.

The Nyssa Methodist church and Apple Valley church are uniting in a daily vacation school from June 3 through 14 at the Nyssa church with morning sessions scheduled from 9 to 11:30 Monday through Friday. All children from four years through eighth grade are invited.

Vacation Bible school will also open at the Nyssa Nazarene church June 3 and extend through June 14 with a closing program and display of work planned for Sunday, June 16. Mrs. Dwight Seward is in charge of the school which will meet daily from 9 to 11:30. Crafts and scripture memorization will be included in the program.

Nyssa Christian church has announced their vacation Bible school to start June 3 with a welcome extended to all children from four years through eighth grade. An especially interesting program is planned this year.

Ludlow Renamed Methodist Pastor At Nyssa Church

The Rev. Paul L. Ludlow was re-appointed pastor of the Nyssa Methodist church for the third consecutive year at the annual year at the annual Idaho Conference of the Methodist Churches held at Twin Falls, Ida. Tuesday to Friday last week.

Bishop A. Raymond Grant of Portland was presiding officer for the conference which included churches of Idaho and Eastern Oregon. The Rev. Stanley Andrews of Meridian was appointed new district superintendent to succeed the Rev. C. G. Hannan who is retiring.

Among other appointments of local interest are the naming of the Rev. Ray Thompson of Colorado, formerly of Idaho to succeed the Rev. E. W. Nye of Fruitland Methodist church who is also retiring; the Rev. John Nickens of Haines, former Apple Valley minister will assume the pastorate at Wallowa and Willis Ludlow, son of Rev. and Mrs. Ludlow, a student at Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley, Calif. will serve as summer pastor at Haines-North Powder pastorate.

The conference also voted to build a new all-purpose dining and assembly room at the Wallowa summer camp. Rev. Ludlow, chairman of the camp development committee reported.

New MIA Counselors Sustained Here

Mrs. Earl Winegar and Mrs. Dean Bake of Ontario were sustained new counselors of the LDS young women's MIA at the recent conference held here. Mrs. E. H. Beus is president of the YWMLA.

Outgoing counselors were Mrs. Carl Burningham and Mrs. Ez Carr.

Mrs. Angie Cook returned Sunday from a trip to California with her sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cook. Mrs. Angie Cook visited at Davis while the remainder went to Los Angeles.

Let the Bible Speak

There are so many people who say it is the way you interpret the Bible the reason you think it is that way. It doesn't mean that at all; you just think it does.

My friend, the Bible means just what it says!

Who are you or I to say what God means to say?

Think not that God knew more about what He wanted to say than we do?

If we say God didn't mean this or that, or didn't mean it that way, we would make God out untrue or very ignorant. We in the United States have a book of rules that has been written by men. This book contains the rules of baseball. Every team across the nation plays with the same book of rules and they all interpret it the same way.

If there is any disagreement on the rules they go to this book and accept what it says.

God has given us a book of rules. Why can't we, the people accept the Bible as it is written as well as we can the book of rules men wrote for baseball?

Please read the following scriptures: Psalms 81:11-16; John 12:40-43; Rom. 1:24-25; II Cor. 3:14, 4:1-4; I Thes. 2:4; I Tim. 4:1-4.

Friends, please turn to your New Testament and read what your Lord wrote through His inspired men by the Holy Spirit instead of what men have written or said.
