Miss Virginia Corn and Allen Baltzor Recite Vows at St. Hubert's Church

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Baltzor

—Schoen Photo.

In double ring ceremonies solemnized Sunday, June 2 at St. Hubert's Catholic church Allen Baltzor claimed Virginia Lee Corn as his bride. The Rev. Father Rembert Ahles officiated at the rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Corn, Nyssa, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baltzor, Jordan Valley.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the services. A buffet luncheon was served to the 46 guests, with Miss Arline Baltzor serving the wedding cake.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of lace net over satin with high neck and fitted bodice. Her veil fell from a crown of pleated tulle and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red rose buds on a white Bible.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Beverly Corn in a white gown and carrying a bouquet of red and white carnations. Best man for the groom was his brother, James Baltzor.

The bride's mother chose a gown of blue nylon jersey, while the mother of the groom wore turquoise linen. Both had white carnation corsages. The serving rooms at the Corn home were decorated with roses.

Sunday Afternoon Garden Vows Unite Vera Wilson, Bob Newgen in Marriage

A garden wedding Sunday at six o'clock in the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Wilson united in marriage their daughter, Vera Marie Wilson and Bob G. Newgen, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Newgen of Sunset Valley. The double ring rites were solemnized by the Rev. Earl Hastings of the Christian Church in the presence of 36 guests.

A picture window framed in mock orange boughs and accented by baskets of garden flowers formed background for the wedding ceremony.

The bride was attired in an aqua satin two-piece afternoon dress with white accessories and white orchid corsage. Her jewelry was a triple strand of pearls.

Mrs. Thomas Hessler, sister of the bride, of Walla Walla, Wash., was matron of honor. She chose a two-piece afternoon dress of brown and gold glazed cotton with white carnation corsage.

The bride's brother, Harold Wilson served as best man, and ringbearer was Donnie Wilson, nephew of the bride.

Diane Wilson, the bride's niece, in a gown of red dotted Swiss with white carnation corsage, sang "Always" accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Don Wilson. Flower girl was Kathy Hessler, niece of the bride attired in a dress of gold and pink.

The bride's mother chose an afternoon dress of orchid printed nylon and the bridegroom's mother, blue printed nylon. Their corsages were of pink and white carnations.

A reception in the yard followed the wedding rites. Cake, ice cream punch and coffee were served by relatives of the bride. Presiding at the bridal table were the bride and bridegroom, their parents and the Rev. and Mrs. Hastings.

For her going-away ensemble the bride wore a green cotton with matching sweater and white accessories.

After a two weeks trip to Payette Lakes and Madras, Mr. and Mrs. Newgen will make their home in Sunset Valley.
