The answers to everyday insurance problems*

By RALPH LAWRENCE

QUESTION: In applying for Automobile Liability insurance is it necessary for a person to tell if he has had a similar policy cancelled by another company?

ANSWER: Most applications require that information but some merely state that it may be requested at the option of the insurance company.

*If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.
