Miss Cleo Esplin and Jerry Williams Are Wed in Idaho Falls Temple Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Williams —Schoen Photo.

Miss Cleo Esplin became the bride of Jerry Williams in wedding vows exchanged Friday afternoon in the Idaho Falls LDS temple. President Davis, first counselor in the temple presidency, conducted the nuptial rites.

Attending the couple were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rulon Esplin and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Williams, all of route 2, Nyssa, Bishop Lloyd W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bair, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wight and Mrs. D. O. Bybee of Nyssa.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Williams were honored at a wedding reception given by the bride's parents Saturday evening in the Nyssa LDS stake house. Approximately 200 guests were in attendance.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of white satin featuring lace applique and seal pearl trim, fashioned with fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and stand-up collar. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a cap of white satin trimmed in lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red rosebuds.

Attending the bride were her sisters, the Misses Torma and Joy Esplin and Mrs. Bill Manley of San Francisco. They were attired in identically styled ballerina gowns of net over taffeta in shades of green, lavender and yellow, respectively, and carried colonial bouquets matching the pastel shades of their gowns.

Flower girl was Charlene Herrick in a pink frock.

C. R. Kesler served as best man and ushers were Dee Winegar, Bill Manley and Lowry Flake.

For her daughter's reception Mrs. Esplin chose a pink street-length dress with corsage of white gladioli and the bridegroom's mother wore an aqua taffeta dress with pink gladioli corsage.

William Beus served as master of ceremonies during the program which included trio selections by Melvin Cottrell, Lowry Flake and Elbert Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Elbert Brown; two numbers by a women's vocal quintet, also accompanied by Mrs. Brown; a reading by Mrs. Frank Sken and vocal solo by Mrs. Brown. Auxiliary Women Announce August Fashion Review

It has been said that even the heat is all in one's manner of thinking. Members of the Malheur Memorial hospital auxiliary fashion planning committee suggest that women should turn their thermometer's face to the wall and their thoughts to the cool days coming in four to six weeks. They should plan now how they will look and how they will feel.

An invitation is extended to get ready to attend the fashion show scheduled for Aug. 22 at the Nyssa cafeteria at 1:30 p.m. Luncheon will be served and styles will be modeled from each of the local stores.

"Fashion's Rehearsal for Fall" has been chosen for the theme of the production. While it may be too warm to wear fall styles they can attend and dream of the wardrobe they wish to select.

Let's Sit 'a Spell!

"Sit and enjoy a cool and refreshing drink."

"Helps, doesn't it? Nothing like a cool, refreshing drink during hot weather to help a man to reflect. Relax first, and then reflect about where we are, and what we are up to doing."

"Not on national issues! Nor on local issues, either, for that matter! We'll leave that to the professional worriers. Let's reflect on how we look, who knows us, how come we are forgotten now and then, and what we can do about it."

"All right! We are all too busy to get around as we should. We are too busy to see all the folks and visit with all the people we need to see and talk with either in business or socially. Can't multiply ourselves often enough!"

"We can't? Wait a minute. Yes, we can multiply ourselves. We can have a good portrait made, one which looks the way we want to look and one that shows us at our best. . . One that represents us when we are not present to represent ourselves."

"Say! That's pretty terrific, isn't it? Sure is! Now, why not let me help you—now, for what it will do for you—tomorrow?"
