Bobby Jo Webster, Bill Schilling Exchange Vows in Candlelight

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schilling —Schoen Photo.

Miss Bobby Jo Webster became the bride of Bill Schilling, Friday, Aug. 2, at 8:00 p. m. The couple stood before an altar with candlelight and flowers when they exchanged vows. The double ring rites were conducted by Rev. Henry Moore in the Presbyterian church at Adrian.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Webster of Adrian, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Alice Schilling of Deerfield, Mo.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length gown of lace over taffeta featuring a round, scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves fastened by tiny wrist buttons. Her veil was held in place by a tiara trimmed with seed pearls. The only jewelry worn was a string of pearls. She carried a bouquet of two white orchids on a white ribbon with Stephanotis laced into the white streamers.

Attending the bride as maid of honor, was Joanne Wood, Adrian. She was attired in a waltz length gown of blue net over taffeta. Bridesmaids were the Misses Sandra Wood and Jan Nusline of Nampa. They wore waltz length gowns of pink and orchid net over taffeta, respectively.

Carl Dean Lundberg was best man and ushers were brothers of the bride, Gary and Jim Webster. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Webster chose a navy blue street length dress with white accessories, and a corsage of red and white carnations.

Charlie Jones, Nyssa, sang "The Lord's Prayer", and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Jim Phifer.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church. Assisting with the gifts and reception were Mrs. Dudley Kurtz, Mrs. Dick Krieger, Mrs. Ernie Seuell, Anna Sparks, Mrs. Jim Phifer, Mrs. Irvin Topliff, Mrs. Ken Price, Mrs. Bill Quick, Kay McDonald, and Donna Peterson.

Janet Parker had charge of the gift book.

For their wedding trip to Colorado the bride chose a light green two piece dress with matching cape and white accessories. They will reside at 5th and Maple in Nyssa.

Mrs. Schilling is a graduate of Adrian high school, and has attended Nampa business school. Mr. Schilling is a graduate of Fort Scott, Kan., high school and is employed at Reitenbaugh's repair shop.

Among out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Webster and Mike of Vale, Mrs. Ira Schrader and Mike of Boise, Earl Hill of Nampa, Lacy Book of Nampa, Joan Peterson, Nampa, Albert Sillonis of Bear Valley, Ore. and Mr. and Mrs. Laver Hawkins of Vale, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Webster of Parma and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Saunders and family of Parma.

Western Party Draws Over 300 Thursday Night

Over 300 people enjoyed chuckwagon grub and western entertainment last Thursday evening at the western party sponsored by St. Paul's Episcopal guild. The event opened with a barbecue supper on the lawn at the William Schireman home and concluded with unique games planned with a western accent.

Barbecue cooks turning out hundreds of barbecued hamburgers and hot dogs and hiding under the disguise of chefs' caps and aprons were Dr. K. E. Kerby, J. L. Church, Bill Schireman, A. C. Sallee and Lloyd Wilson. The western theme was artistically carried out even on the table cloths which bore authentic western brands, many used by ranchers in this area.

Children's games were in play on the lawn at the neighboring Maylin Maxfield home, horseshoe tossing in the alley and Annie Oakley contests and wild mustang racing in the Bert Lienkaemper yard adjacent to the Schireman home on the south.
