July 31, 1957 My Dearest Grandparents,

On this day fifty years ago, the Lord saw fit to join together in holy matrimony two very wonderful people. They have had joys and heartbreaks together and have many loved ones that I hope to join on this day and wish you a very very happy wedding anniversary.

I wish I could have been there in Nyssa to wish you a great enjoying, but this was not possible because I know you are sible.

I only hope that someday the Lord will give me someone that I may have as long and a happy married life as you.

All my love,
Your loving grandson, Leland.
