The Walter Foxes Plan to Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Fox will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Wednesday, Sept. 4, with open house at their home.

All friends and relatives are welcome to call from 2 until 5 in the afternoon and from 9 o'clock on in the evening in honor of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox were married Sept. 4, 1907, in Valley Junction, Wis., and came to Nyssa in 1934 after living in Gettysburg, S.D., for 27 years where they farmed. They operated a service station here known as Fox's station until 1941 when they purchased the drive-in market where the M & W is now located.

In the fall of 1943 Mr. Fox and his son entered the farming and cattle business, in which they are still engaged.

The Foxes have had three children, one of whom died at infancy; a daughter, Mrs. Marvel Hoare of Seneca, Ore., and a son, Clifford of Nyssa. They also have seven grandchildren.

Bridal Shower For Mary House

Miss Mary Jean House was honored Monday evening with a bridal shower held at the Jim Savage home.

Mrs. Duane Holcomb and Mrs. Morris Huffman were hostesses.

Miss House, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul House, will become the bride of Dick Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harrison, at wedding rites Sunday in the Blessed Sacrament church at Ontario.

Twenty-one guests were present for the evening.

Out of town guests were: Violet Rose Dryden of Caldwell, Mrs. Mae Harrison, and Mrs. Emma Burson of Caldwell, Mrs. Dr. McKinder of Bernice, Calif., and Mrs. Herschel Thompson of Adrian.

Lozman Cottage Hosts
Week End Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. John Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Gann, Mrs. Fern Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Uehlin of Payette, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Tuttle and family of New Plymouth, and Mrs. Ethel Dressler of Payette spent the past week end at the summer cottage of Mrs. Hatch near Lozman, Idaho.

Special music during the program included vocal solos by Mrs. Mary Hartley and Miss Irene Jayo and selection by a sextet from the LDS Second Ward. Background piano music for the review was played by Miss Phyllis Cheldain. Decorations included a diademi from the Sumida and farm near Weiser.

The models entered on stage through a flowered and leafed archway and followed style down half way through the center aisle, to appear before the large crowd attending.

Members of the committees in charge of the review appeared on KIDO-TV Aug. 20 in Boise. Bob Johnson, chairman of the hospital board; Mrs. Harold Brendle, auxiliary president; Mrs. Clyde Snider, general chairman; Mrs. Lloyd Tobler, ticket chairman; Mrs. Tom Niskitani, chairman of fashions and models; and Mrs. Eugene Groat, publicity chairman, gave a brief mention of all planned events to take place.

Nyssa WMF Women Represent Foreign Countries

Pictured left to right, top row: Mrs. Emil Wohlg, Mrs. Ray Holby, Mrs. Bill Michaelson, Mrs. Ed Harrison, second row: Mrs. Jo Chalmers, Mrs. C. C. Burke, Mrs. Bob Peason, Mrs. Jo. B. B. Mrs. O. G. Gann; bottom row: Mrs. W. L. Looney, Mrs. Lauren Wright and Mrs. Ron Schow, as they were dressed to represent the many countries attending the Lutheran World Federation assembly.

The regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Federation of Faith Lutheran church was held Monday evening, Aug. 19, at the home of Mrs. Bob Fangen.

The Lutheran World Federation assembly was held in Minneapolis, Minn., from Aug. 15 to 25. This assembly consisted of Lutherans from all over the world.

The women of Faith Lutheran, using the World Federation assembly as their theme, gave a special program to represent the many countries attending the assembly. Those represented were Japan, Spain, Switzerland, Germany, France, Egypt, Mexico and Italy.

Mrs. Ed Harrison and Mrs. Bob Fangen were in charge for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Beers and Don of Sealsito, Calif., left Monday after spending two weeks visiting with Leo's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Deidre Beers.

The Beers were enroute home from a summer's vacation which took them through approximately 13 states. They visited many fine points of interest.

The Beers and their home guests were entertained evening after evening at the Leslie Hall home. The evening was spent viewing the film slides of the Leo Beers' trip.

W. O. Peterson has just returned home from a recent trip to the West.

Mrs. Marlin A. Anderson and Steven and Debbie of Corvallis left Friday after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Peterson.

Mrs. Anderson's husband, Marlin, has been working on his Ph.D. degree in nuclear physics at Boulder City, Colo., at the U. S. bureau of standards this summer, and will return to his home in Corvallis some time in September.

Relph Cappers have visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grasmick and Mrs. June of Gering, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. Hank Storm of Mountain Home, Ida., were recent visitors at the Relph Cappers home. The Grasmicks were also visiting with other relatives in the area, and the Storms are former Nyssa residents.
