Publisher of Weekly Newspaper Sadly Reports the Federal Tax Bite

What does high federal taxation—and reckless spending in Washington—mean to the publisher of an average weekly newspaper?

Guy T. Ludi of The Wahoo Newspaper (combining The Democrat and The Wasp) in Wahoo, Nebraska, recently reported:

"We paid to the Federal Government an average of $6.53 per hour for every hour our plant was in operation last year. This figure is equal to the salaries of three skilled workmen for an entire year... three skilled workmen that never showed up for work."

"The federal taxes we paid could be compared to another unusual equal... It cost Ludi Printing Company $52.00 every working morning to unlock the front door. But, if this sounds ridiculous to you, just follow along on these comparisons:

"The amount of federal government taxes taken out of this plant last year was equal to: two and a quarter full page ads each week... or
"9c out of every dollar taken in (whether or not a profit was made), or

"Over $260 in cash every week."

"These taxes took enough money out of our plant to pay for any of the following:

"Heat, for 22 years.

"Postage for nine years.

"Electric lights for 32 years.

"Water for 103 years.

"Electric power for nine years.

"Electric heat for typesetting machines for 22 years.

"Telephone for 21 years."

"Freight costs for 14 years."

"Insurance for 15 years."

"You may ask... Well, what are we going to do about it?"

"The answer is: We don't know. We know that spending by government is too high... that taxes are too high and going higher... we'll do our share of the squawking, but one voice is hardly an uproar."

"Actually, we would propose that tax-conscious people everywhere seriously consider the problem before the next primary election in 1958. At that time something can be done if everyone will crack down on the spenders in Washington."

Christian Church Notes

"And do not forsake the assembling of yourselves to gather as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." Heb. 10:25.

Rev. Baumgartner Installed Pastor Of St. Hubert's

On Sunday, Sept. 1 at St. Hubert's Catholic Church, the Rev. John Baumgartner was installed as pastor of the local Catholic Church. The installation ceremony consists of the dean of the territory accepting the oath of office and presenting to the new pastor the symbols of his powers as spiritual leader of the flock entrusted to him.

Preceding the 10 o'clock mass, the Dean, the Very Rev. Vincent C. Egan, pastor of Holy Family Church, Burns, Ore., presented Father Baumgartner with the key of the church and admonished him to take charge of the church and fulfill his duties with all diligence. Next the new pastor was presented with the stole, the symbol of priestly power and was told to administer the Sacraments of Jesus Christ in a worthy manner, befitting a representative of Christ. Finally, he was given the Missal, containing the Word of God, and warned that a pastor must preach the Gospel not only in word but must live the Gospel so that by his example the people will be close to God.

After the installation, Father Baumgartner offered the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the members of his flock. Father Egan gave the sermon for the occasion.

Present in the sanctuary was Father George Murphy of St. Pius' Church in Klamath Falls.

Following the mass, the priests were guests at a breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Towne of 317 N. 4th Street.
