

Cow Belles Plan 10th Anniversary For Nov. 15 Meet

The Malheur county Cow Belles will celebrate their 10th anniversary at a meeting in Vale Nov. 15 and 16. Mrs. Harry Sandquist, publicity chairman, announced this week. Registration will be in the Vale hotel.

The group was organized in 1947 as an auxiliary to the Malheur County Livestock association to assist in making the livestock association's program more effective. According to Mrs. Tom McElroy, president of the Cow Belles, they have conducted an active program in promotion of beef products.

Special activities of the Cow Belles during the two-day session will be held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the livestock association, will include a card party Friday night in the Catholic parish hall with all association members and friends invited and a city-wide treasure hunt sponsored by Vale merchants.

A business meeting scheduled for 10 o'clock Saturday morning will be highlighted by election of officers and report of activities. This meeting will convene in the parish hall, Mrs. Sandquist announced, and will be followed by a noon luncheon.

THE NEW ROCKETS ARE HERE...BRINGING YOU

OLDSmobility

...THE NEW WAY OF GOING PLACES IN THE ROCKET AGE!

Four-Beam Headlamps increase night-driving safety, reduce glare.

...and unless you get me a SPARK oil burning heater, don't wake me up until Spring.

You enjoy Spring-like warmth indoors all winter long when your house is heated with a "Spark" oil burning heater. For a "Spark" gives you instant response. A warm flood of heat is always waiting, ready to chase the chill if the temperature drops. Or a "Spark" will throttle down to give you the constant glow that holds the temperature exactly where you want it.

ONLY SPARK HAS THE VISIBLE, FAN-SHAPED FLAME

The visible fan-shaped flame is the heart of friendly "Spark" heat. It casts a radiant glow through the heavy glass door to create the cheerful atmosphere of an open fireplace. Shaped by "Spark's" patented flame spreader, the flame squeezes all the heat from every drop of oil.
