

Kingman Kolony— Thanksgiving Dinners, Visitors Feature Holiday

By Mrs. Ronald Batt
Phone 2403

Thanksgiving day found some Kingman Kolony families at the homes of relatives and friends elsewhere and some families entertaining at home for friends and relatives.

The largest gathering in the Kolony was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Keck, where 34 sons, daughters, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and grandchildren gathered for a real old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner prepared by Mrs. Keck. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Keck and children came from Richland, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Keck and children from Caldwell; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Keck and children and Mrs. Arvin Goff and children from Payette; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Keck and children from N. H. Young; a niece, Mrs. Art Taylor and their nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Young and baby, all from Parma.

Thanksgiving dinner at the Jim Phifer home was for 12. Mrs. Phifer's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Scott and daughters, with Mr. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Scott, all came from Reubens, Ida., for the holiday and Mr. and Mrs. William Toomb joined them for the big dinner. Friday the Phifers took the Scott families on a tour of the sugar factory. Saturday was spent visiting and Sunday the guests departed for their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bowers entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bowers and Dean Pittenger at dinner on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Conant and family ate Thanksgiving dinner at the home of their sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Godbout and family in Ontario.

Mrs. Mae French went to Seneca, Ore., Wednesday to spend the holiday with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Gray. She returned home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Duncan were guests from Ironside at the Oscar Schaefer home on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Walters were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Walters at Owyhee Corners.

Mr. and Mrs. Red Kreeger probably traveled the greatest distance for their Thanksgiving dinner. They were guests at the home of their brother, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Glenn in Othello, Wash. On their return trip they visited relatives in Walla Walla and in Elgin they visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cummings. They arrived home late Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Montgomery and children were Thanksgiving dinner guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Montgomery. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garner accompanied them to a dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Theil were at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Theil for a Thanksgiving dinner. Miss Catherine Theil arrived home from Boise Thursday evening to stay until Saturday with her family.

Thanksgiving at the Art Sparks home was observed by having all their children home: Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sparks of Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Altig and two sons of Parma and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sparks of Nyssa.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Bennett and daughter had Thanksgiving dinner in the evening at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pinkston spent Thanksgiving day with their son, Bruce and family in Parma. Saturday evening their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sant and family stopped to visit them. They were on their way from Grass Valley, Ore., to their home in Arco, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Begeman and Mrs. Ida Hodge were guests of the Fred Vanderpools Thanksgiving day. They were guests at the Bill Van de Water home in Big Bend on Sunday.

Ronnie Thompson arrived home Wednesday to spend the holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hershal Thompson. They were guests in Emmett of Mrs. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earp. Ronnie returned to college Tuesday.

Sunday dinner guests at the Charlie Bowers home were Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Olund of Vale, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bowers, Karen and Colleen Phifer.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Veers were in Ontario as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hines and family on Thanksgiving day.

The Lester Strawn family journeyed to Boise Thanksgiving day to have dinner at the Leon Smith home. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Yeancy, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rieber of Fruitland, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Calzer and Mrs. Barbara Crabb and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ashcraft were at home Thanksgiving day. He was ill with the flu.

Mrs. Edna Cowling was a Sunday dinner guest of Mrs. May French.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Veers have moved to Payette where he is announcer at the new radio station there.

The Klaas Laan family had reason for rejoicing again quite recently when Mr. Laan's mother arrived from Holland for an extended visit with them. Other

Cy Radcliffe Speaker Saturday At Knife & Fork

Cy Radcliffe

"Can the United States maintain its industrial production supremacy against Iron Curtain countries, or is Uncle Sam's 'Big Government' hamstringing small business to the point where production of necessary goods may fall short of this country's peaceful or wartime needs?"

That question and others of like nature which have been receiving front page attention will be discussed by Cy Radcliffe, a former successful small businessman who "retired" from a going implement business after a tangle with the National Labor Relations board and who later went abroad to see if some of Uncle Sam's competitors had anything to offer that we could take advantage of.

Radcliffe will project his findings and his analyses to members guests for Thanksgiving were Mrs. Laan's brother and family who came from South America a short time ago and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Laan and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kygar entertained relatives at a Thanksgiving dinner including Mr. and Mrs. Buster Talbot and family, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Culbertson, Mr. and Mrs. Merle McClure and family and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Culbertson.

The only 1958 car that offers more of everything you want... yet is priced lower than in '57

Here's great news! While prices of 1958 cars of other manufacturers are up, the price of Ford's exciting new Custom 300 Series is down. A brand-new 58 Ford Custom 300 with all of its exciting new styling and engineering advances is priced lower than a '57 model, similarly equipped!

World approved styling. A Custom 300 brings you styling that is dramatically new. With its Honeycombed grille, Slitstream roof, Deep-Sculptured rear deck, and Safety-Twin headlights and taillights, Ford styling drew admiring glances from Paris to Saigon... yet it's yours now in any 58 Ford Custom 300 without extra cost!

New handling ease. Slide behind the wheel of a Custom 300 and you'll soon discover just how much fun driving can be. Notice how smoothly it handles. That's Ford's new feather-touch Magic-Circle steering, the next best thing to power steering.

New riding comfort. Notice, too, the solid comfort of your ride. That's Ford's easier acting front and rear suspensions. They soak up the bumps before they reach you.

Thrifty, new engines. You have a wonderful choice of new, more efficient power plants... designed for real gas-saving economy plus greater performance. Six or V-8, they give you more power, smoother power, from less gas!

Priced as much as $50 lower. A comparison of manufacturer's suggested retail delivered prices shows that a 58 Ford Custom 300 is priced as much as $50 less than the same model for '57! You'll wonder how Ford can offer so many of the things you want in a car priced so low. One big reason: Ford gives you more car for less money because Fords sell more!

See and drive a Custom 300 and we believe you'll agree that these Fords give you more real value for your car-buying dollars than any car on the American road today.
