Methodist Church Candlelight Rites Unite Darlene Henderson, Walt Ford

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Ford

The Nyssa Methodist church was the scene of impressive candlelight rites Friday evening, Nov. 22, which united in marriage Miss Darlene Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Henderson of route 2, Parma, and Walt Ford of Nyssa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ford of Cambridge, Ida.

The double ring vows were read by the Rev. Paul L. Ludlow in the presence of 150 guests. The chancel of the church was graced with baskets of mums and white tapers in tall candelabra. White tapers at each window and white satin bows at the pews complimented the setting.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white lace over satin featuring long sleeves, pointed at the wrists, fitted bodice with dropped waistline and full skirt. Her jewelry was a pearl necklace and earring set, a gift from the bridegroom. Her shoulder length veil of French illusion was held by a pearl tiara and she carried a white Bible with white spider mums and white satin ribbons knotted with miniature yellow mums.

Maid of honor, Miss Thelma Takami of Nyssa, was attired in a ballerina gown of deep turquoise taffeta with matching headband and mitts. Her colonial bouquet was of yellow and white mums.

Candlelighters were the Misses Sherrill Jean Robbins, niece of the bride, and Wilma Ford, sister of the bridegroom, who wore gowns of medium turquoise taffeta styled identically to the maid's of honor. Vicki Holloway of Twin Falls, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her gown was of net over light turquoise taffeta. She dropped yellow petals from a white basket along the bridal aisle.

Duane Ford, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and ushers were Glen Henderson, the bride's brother, and Clayton Wilson of Payette.

Charles Jones, vocal soloist, rendered "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Dwight Wyckoff who also played prelude music and the traditional wedding marches.

Mothers of the couple chose afternoon dresses of navy blue with pink accessories and Mrs. Henderson's corsage was of pink carnations and Mrs. Ford's of white carnations.

The newlyweds were honored at a reception held immediately following in the new parlor of the church. Miss Ruby Ford presided at the guest book and the Mmes. Leland Fox, Clayton Wilson and Max Linville at the gift table.

The three-tiered wedding cake adorned in white and yellow with a miniature bride and groom atop, was baked and decorated by Mrs. Merrilldean Robbins, sister of the bride. Coffee and punch were served by Mrs. Bob Holloway of Twin Falls and Mrs. George Ford of Cambridge.

For her travel ensemble the new Mrs. Ford chose a brown suit with matching accessories. Following a wedding trip into Washington and Northern Idaho, the couple is residing at 626 North Fourth street.
