The answers to everyday insurance problems*

By RALPH LAWRENCE

QUESTION: I've been told that Business Interruption insur- ance even pays the profits a business loses through fire. How does the insurance com- pany know what the profits should be?

ANSWER: They take the fig- ures for that same business for a period similar to that during which the fire forces it to cease operating.

*If you'll address your own insurance questions to this of- fice, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

Sheralle Livingston, Gerald Flinders Wed in Afternoon Ceremony at Ogden

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Flinders — Schoen Photo.

Miss Sherelle June Livingston of Ogden, Utah, and Gerald E. Flinders were united in marriage at an afternoon ceremony Dec. 29 in the Ogden Thirtieth ward church house.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Livingston of Ogden and Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Flinders of Nyssa.

Bishop Arthur Dale performed the double ring ceremony before members of the immediate family. Red roses, carnations and green holiday foliage decorated the church. Organ music was furnis- hed by Elayne Gould.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white wool sheath dress with rhinestone ac- cessories. Her bouquet was of red roses and white stephanotis en- circled in swirls of point d'esprit lace.

Mrs. Carol Tucker of Ogden was matron of honor. She was attired in a cherry wool sheath dress and her corsage was of white rosebuds.

Ames Israelson served as best man. Ushers were Jeff Living- ston and Frank Villella, all of Ogden.

The bride's mother was attired in a white knit suit with black accessories. Mrs. Flinders chose a cherry colored wool knit suit. Both mothers wore corsages of American beauty rosebuds swirl- ed in silver.

Immediately following the vows the newlyweds were honored at a reception held at the Mansion House from 2 until 5 p.m. They received their guests while stand- ing under an archway of roses and carnations woven into green foliage. Close behind was a red brick fireplace, above which was a decorated mirror reflecting the holiday sparkling snow and gay silver bells tied with red ribbon. Parents of the couple were also in the receiving line.

In charge of the guest book was

Mrs. Janna Lund. Mrs. Carolyn Hartmann and Miss Nancy Lam- oreaux received the gifts.

The guests were served refresh- ments in the dining room. The three-tiered silver decorated wed- ding cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Serving were Mrs. Sharon John- ston, Mrs. Sherlaine White and Mrs. Colleen Davis.

Many out-of-town guests were present for the event.

After their return to Nyssa the new Mr. and Mrs. Flinders were entertained at a reception given at the Nyssa stake house Jan. 10. Master of ceremonies was Arvel L. Child.

On the evening's program were Mrs. Dorothea Lewis, Mrs. Mar- garet Brown and Mrs. Florence Low singing "I Walked Beside You." They were accompanied by Diane Low. Reed Patterson gave a record impersonation; Reona Christensen and Carolyn Naka- shima presented the group with a novelty number; Mrs. Mark Hartley sang "My Wonderful One," accompanied by Betty Phi- fer and Betty Bowers vocalized "Because God Made You Mine," accompanied by Marsha Burgess.

Mrs. Marvin Wilson, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book. Gifts were receiv- ed by Mrs. Kenneth Cottle, Mrs. Darwin Jensen, Mrs. Mel Beck and Mrs. Madge Wilson. Mrs. Ar- vel L. Child and Mrs. Les Jame- son cut the cake and serving at the punch table were Mrs. Mark Moncur, Mrs. Tren Jones and Mrs. Lee Stoker.

The bride is a graduate of Og- den high school and until her marriage was employed at Hill Field AFB in Ogden. The bride- groom is a Nyssa high school and Weber college graduate. He is presently employed with Clover Lawn Dairy.

The newlyweds are making their home on Alberta avenue.
